NOTICE.

The Proprietors of The Edinburgh and Leith Post-Office Directory have again the honour of submitting to the Public another Volume of the Publication, being the Fifty-fifth; and they avail themselves of the opportunity to express their grateful thanks for the kind support and patronage which they have received, hoping their exertions to make the Publication both correct and useful will be followed by a continuance of the favour of the Public. A new and improved Map, by W. and A. K. Johnston, has been substituted for that of former years. The Alphabetical List of Streets, with the Names of Places where situated, has been considerably enlarged. A List of the Names of Places in the Delivery of Edinburgh and Sub-Offices, also a List of the Names and Addresses of the Commanding Officers of the Rifle and Artillery Volunteers, have been added. An important addition has been made to the Clerical Directory, giving the Name and Situation of the Churches within the City of Edinburgh and Leith, with the Names and Residences of the Officiating Clergymen. A List of Names of Persons in the County Directory, following the plan of last year of giving each Post-Town in detail under its separate head, is continued;—all which, it is hoped, will add to the usefulness of the Publication.

EXPLANATION.—In the Left-hand Table are the years of the Century, and above each is the Dominical Letter corresponding with that Year. Then, opposite to the Month, at the foot of the Right-hand Table, will be found a corresponding Letter, over which are placed the Days of the Month and Week for that Month (distinguishing the Sundays by a different type). Each Blank Space in the Left-hand Table shows the year following to be Leap Year; and as every Leap Year has two Dominical Letters, the Letter above the Blank Space must be used for January and February in every Leap Year, and for the other months, use the Letters belonging to the respective Years.

By transposing the Dominical Letters, this Calendar would answer for any Century.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, ETC.

Note.—The Writs and Instruments, forms of which are provided by the recent Titles to Land (Scotland) Act 1858 (21 & 22 Vict. c. 76), will be liable to Stamp Duties, if they come under the general description of Deeds, or come within any of the particular items of charge to Duty in the Stamp Duties Schedules, whether written on other Deeds, or separate. See under Assignation, Charter, Deed of Relinquishment, Precept of clare constat, and Sasine.

ADMISSION as a burgess, or into any Corporation or Company in any Burgh in Scotland, in lieu of the duties of £1 and £3 formerly payable, 5s.

ADMISSIONS of other descriptions various; as to which see the schedule annexed to 55 Geo. III., c. 184. See also LICENCE, below.

ADMISSION to act as Advocate, £50; as Writer to the Signet, Solicitor, Agent, Attorney, or Procurator in any court, £25; to act as Agent in Supreme Courts without indenture (in addition to the said £25), £60; do. in Inferior Courts, without indenture (in addition to the said £25), £30; to act as Notary-Public, £20; to be fellow of College of Physicians, £25; to degree of Doctor of Medicine, £10; to ecclesiastical benefice, £2.

AFFIDAVITS and DECLARATIONS (23 Vict. c. 15.)—For every sheet or piece of paper, parchment, or vellum, on which the same shall be written or printed, 2s. 6d. Affidavits and declarations authorised to be made before Justices of Peace are exempted.

AGREEMENT, (on and after 3d April 1860,) for a Lease or Tack of Lands, &c., not exceeding seven years; and,

AGREEMENT, MINUTE or MEMORANDUM, (on and after 3d April 1860,) containing the terms and conditions on which Lands, &c. are let, held, or occupied for any such term. The same duty as on a Lease or Tack.

Provided that any Lease or Tack afterwards made, in pursuance of and conformably to the above, shall be charged with the Lease duty, but not higher than 2s. 6d., exclusive of Progressive duty, notwithstanding the terms and conditions may be varied, not affecting the Stamp duty. The Lease may be impressed with a stamp denoting the payment of the proper duty on the Agreement, Minute, or Memorandum.

AGREEMENT, or minute or memorandum of agreement, without a clause of registration and not charged otherwise, nor expressly exempted from all Stamp duty, where the matter is of the value of £5 or upwards, whether the same shall be only evidence of a contract, or obligatory upon the parties from its being a written instrument, together with every schedule, receipt, &c., endorsed or annexed, 6d.

Progressive duty on words, 6d.

Provided that in the case of Letters forming an Agreement, it shall be sufficient if any of such Letters shall be stamped with a duty of 1s., although the same shall in the whole contain any quantity of words exceeding 2160.

Exemptions.—Agreements for the hire of any labourer, artificer, manufacturer, or menial servant.

Memorandum or agreement for or relating to the sale of any goods, wares, or merchandise.

Agreements entered into in the United Kingdom for or relating to the service in the colonies of any person as an artificer, clerk, domestic servant, handicraftsman, mechanic, gardener, servant in husbandry, or labourer, 17 & 18 Vict. c. 83, § 21.

Agreements in compliance with or under the provisions of the Merchant Seaman's Act, 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112, or the Mercantile Marine Act, 13 & 14 Vict. c. 93.

Note.—The agreement, if liable to one duty of 6d., may be stamped if brought to the Commissioners at London, or their office at Edinburgh, or lodged with the distributors of stamps in the country, within fourteen days after being made. If after, at London or Edinburgh, on a penalty of £10, 7 & 8 Vict., c. 21, § 5. If the matter of the Agreement shall be under the value of £20, the penalty is 20s. If liable to further duty than 6d., it is subject to the same Regulations as Deeds. See Stamping of Deeds.

BILL OF EXCHANGE, DRAFT, or ORDER, (Foreign) on and after 3d April 1860, drawn or endorsed out of the United Kingdom for the payment of money on demand, 23 Vict. c. 15. The same duty as on an Inland Bill of Exchange, for the payment of money otherwise than on demand.

Note.—The word endorsed is held by the Board of Inland Revenue to have no practicable effect. See Times, 20 & 22 April 1860.

N.B.—The duties on Foreign Bills, drawn out of the United Kingdom, are to be denoted by adhesive stamps. The holder to affix the adhesive stamp if one not on it before he negotiate it, and cancel the stamp by writing his name or the name of his firm, and the date, on it, 17 & 18 Vict. c. 83, § 3. The Act 23 Vict. c. 15, § 12, provides that the party paying the bill, shall, when he does so, write the word "paid" upon the stamp. The amount of duty on adhesive stamps is impressed on two parts. The Board of Inland Revenue recommend that the cancellation should be on one of the parts, and the other left legible.

If a Foreign Bill payable abroad, and as to which the provision "drawn in sets of three or more" apply, shall be drawn in a single bill, the duty will be the same as on an Inland Bill, and if in a set of two, the duty on each will be the same as on an Inland Bill. This is in accordance with the opinion of the Board of Inland Revenue, (see North British Daily Mail, 3d November 1854.) But the Board have given an opinion that a Foreign Bill drawn abroad and payable in this country in duplicate or triplicate only represents one transaction, and is liable to the duty on one Inland Bill of the same amount,—that is, if one of the parts have the full duty, the others may be unstamped, (see Times, 6th November 1854.) The schedule of the act does not provide for such a bill being drawn in sets. Bills bearing to be drawn out of the United Kingdom are to be deemed Foreign Bills so drawn, although they may in reality be drawn in the United Kingdom—17 & 18 Vict. c. 83, § 4. A person in the United Kingdom drawing and issuing a bill payable out of the United Kingdom in a set, must draw the whole set, and a person transferring or negotiating such bill must transfer and deliver, stamped, the whole number of the set. Penalty £100. A person taking such bill must get the whole set, stamped, otherwise he cannot recover on it or make it available—ib. § 6. This applies only to bills drawn within and payable out of the United Kingdom.

Inland Bill, Draft, or Order for the payment of any sum of money, though not made payable to the bearer, or to order, if the same shall be delivered to the payee, or some person on his or her behalf, the same duty as on a bill of exchange for the like sum, payable to bearer or order.

Inland Bill, Draft, or Order for the payment of any sum of money, weekly, monthly, or at any other stated periods, if made payable to the bearer, or to order, or if delivered to the payee, or some person on his or her behalf, where the total amount of the money thereby made payable shall be specified therein, or can be ascertained therefrom, or shall be indefinite, the same duty as on a bill payable to bearer or order on demand.

Promissory Note for the payment of any sum of money by instalments, or for the payment of several sums of money at different days or times, so that the whole of the money to be paid shall be definite and certain, the same duty as on a promissory note, payable otherwise than to the bearer on demand, for a sum equal to the whole amount of the money to be paid.

PROXY to vote at any meeting of any joint-stock or other company whose shares are transferable, or at any parish meeting of heritors or proprietors,—6d.

N.B.—Heritors' Mandates to vote and act at Parochial Boards are exempt, (8 & 9 Vict. c. 83, § 22.)

RECEIPTS for money amounting to £2 or upwards,—1d.

The following provisions as to what shall be deemed a receipt, and the exemptions from receipt duty by 55 Geo. III. c. 184, are still in force.

Any note, memorandum, or writing whatever, given upon the payment of money, whether signed or not, shall be a receipt if it shall import or signify that any sum of money, debt, or demand, or any part thereof amounting to £2 or upwards, has been paid or settled; and like documents given upon payment by bills, drafts, promissory notes, or other securities for money, are also receipts.

According to decisions, a simple acknowledgment of a sum of money in loan, or of the correctness of a debt, or of a deposit of money, is not liable to stamp duty, either as a receipt or promissory note. The judges held it essential to render a receipt liable to duty that something formerly due had been discharged. On this principle a receipt for a sum of money as a donation to a religious or charitable purpose, not being anything formerly due, would not be liable. The Board of Inland Revenue have intimated that they are to regard such receipts as exempted.

Among the exemptions from receipt duty are—

Receipts written on promissory notes, bills, drafts, or orders for the payment of money, duly stamped.

Receipts written on any bond, mortgage, or other security, or any conveyance, deed, or instrument whatever, duly stamped, acknowledging the receipt of the consideration money therein expressed, or the receipt of any principal money, interest, or annuity thereby secured.

The exemption of letters by the general post acknowledging the safe arrival of any bills of exchange, promissory notes, or other securities for money is repealed by 17 & 18 Vict, cap. 83, § 13.

Note.—Stamps may be impressed or affixed. Where adhesive stamps are affixed, the granter is required to cancel the stamps by writing his name or initials on them. Penalty for omission, £10. Penalty for removing adhesive stamps, or using them a second time, or doing any fraudulent act to defraud of duty,—£20. (16 & 17 Vict. c. 59, § 3, 4, and 5.)

Resignation.—Principal or original instrument of resignation, or service, or cognition of heirs, or charter, or sasine of any houses, lands, or other heritable subjects holding burgage; also instrument of resignation of lands, &c., not held burgage,—5s. Progressive duty,—5s.

Sasine.—Instrument of sasine given on any charter, precept of clare constat, or precept from Chancery, or on any wadset, heritable bond, disposition, apprising, adjudication of any heritable subjects not of burgage tenure,—5s. Progressive duty,—5s.

Note.—An instrument of sasine proceeding on two precepts, even although in one disposition, is liable to two duties of 5s.

The instrument in favour of an heir or disponee of a creditor in an heritable security—Form, No. 3, 8 and 9 Vict. c. 31, is usually put on the sasine stamp as also the Notarial Instrument, § 1.

The Notarial Instrument under the Title to Land Acts 21 and 22 Vict. c. 76, of which the effect upon registration is declared to be equivalent to infeftment in the subjects will, it is thought, come under this item.

Schedule or Inventory of heritage or movables, or containing the terms of any proposed sale, lease, &c., or regulations for the cultivation and management of any farm, &c., separate from and referred to in lease, bond, deed, agreement, &c., chargeable with any stamp-duty not exceeding 10s.—the same duty as shall be chargeable on such lease, bond, agreement, &c.; and where referred to in such, chargeable with a duty exceeding 10s.,—10s. Progressive duty,—10s.

Scrip Certificate, after 4th August 1853, that is to say, any document denoting or intended to denote the right or title of the holder thereof, or any person, to any share or shares in any joint-stock or other company, or proposed or intended company, or any certificate declaring or entitling the holder thereof, or any person, to be or become the proprietor of any share or shares of or in any such company, where such certificate, or the right or title to such share or shares shall be, or be intended to be, transferable by the delivery of such certificate, or otherwise than by deed or instrument in writing,—1d. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 63.)

Settlement.—Any deed or instrument, whether voluntary or gratuitous, or upon any consideration other than a bonâ fide pecuniary consideration, whereby any definite and certain principal sum or sums of money, or any definite and certain shares in any stocks or funds, shall be settled or agreed to be settled upon or for the benefit of any person or persons, either in possession or reversion, either absolutely, or for life or other partial interest, or in any other manner whatsoever,—if such sum or sums, or the value of such share or shares, together, shall not exceed in the whole £100,—5s.

And if the same shall exceed £100, then for every £100, and fractional part of £100,—5s.

All such deeds which contain any settlement of lands or other property, or any other thing besides the settlement of such money or stock, shall be chargeable with such further duty as any separate deed containing such settlement of lands or other property, or other thing, would have been chargeable with, exclusive of the progressive duty.

And where there is more than one such deed chargeable with any such duty exceeding £1, 15s., one of them only shall be charged with the ad valorem duty; and also where any settlement shall be made in pursuance of any previous articles chargeable with, and which shall have paid any such duty exceeding £1. 15s., it is not chargeable with the ad valorem duty; and the deeds not chargeable with the ad valorem duty shall be charged with the duty to which they are liable under any more general description in the stamp schedules; and on the whole being produced duly executed and stamped, the latter shall also be stamped with a particular stamp for denoting the payment of the said ad valorem duty.

WILLS, TESTAMENTS, and TESTAMENTARY INSTRUMENTS, and DISPOSITIONS mortis causa dated on or after 3d April, 1860, are not chargeable with any stamp duty, 23 Vict. c. 15, § 7.

WRIT OF ACKNOWLEDGEMENT by any person infeft of lands in Scotland, in favour of the heir or disponee of a creditor fully vested in right of an heritable security constituted by infeftment,—10s. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 63, § 6.)

Note.—Writ of acknowledgement sch. E of Registration Long Leases Act (20 and 21 Vict. c. 26) of heirs in lease, would not come under this, but presumed must be regarded as a deed, and so liable to the deed duty of £1, 15s.

INVENTORY DUTY.

The duty is imposed on the inventory of the personal estate and effects of deceased persons, required to be recorded in the Commissary Courts according to the rates in the following table, and is regulated by the amount of such estate in Scotland, England, and Ireland, in the case of persons dying domiciled in Scotland, and in the case of persons dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom, having personal estate in Scotland, by the amount of such estate in Scotland. The same rates of duty are payable on probates and letters of administration in respect of the personal property situated in England, Ireland, and Scotland of deceased persons dying domiciled in England or Ireland.—See 21 and 22 Vict. c. 56. The Act 23 Vict. c. 15, § 4, makes liable to the said duty personal estate which a person dying after 3d April, 1860, shall have disposed of by will under any authority enabling such person to dispose of the same as he or she shall think fit. For the purpose of the act, such personal estate shall be deemed to be personal or moveable estate, and effects of the person so dying. The said act (§ 6,) also declares that money secured on heritable property in Scotland, and money secured by Scotch bonds in favour of heirs and assignees, excluding executors shall for the purposes of the act be moveable property, and shall be included in any inventory to be exhibited in Scotland of the estate of any deceased person entitled thereto, and in England and Ireland, shall be estate and effect in respect of which probate of will or letters of administration shall be granted. The inventory, probate, and letters of administration shall be chargeable with stamp duty in respect of such property.

Note.—The board of Inland Revenue hold that money secured on heritage and on Scotch bonds as above is liable to duty, although the deceased to whom it belonged died before the passing of the Act (3d April, 1860,) if the inventory shall be exhibited on or after that date.

N.B.—It is not provided (see § 9, 12, 13, and 15 of 21 and 22 Vict. c. 56), that the inventories of the personal estates of persons dying domiciled out of Great Britain and Ireland, having personal property in Scotland, may contain personal property of the deceased situated in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and be recorded in the books of the Commissary Court of Edinburgh, nor of course, that confirmation of the English and Irish personal property may be obtained. The provisions in § 3 and 8 are broad enough to take in these cases, in so far as concerns obtaining appointment of executors, and recording the inventory; but there is no provision for payment of the stamp duty on the inventory, or obtaining confirmation in respect of any personal property in England or Ireland. The former law will apply in such cases. The provisions of the Act are permissive merely as to paying inventory duty, and probate or administration duty, on the whole personal estate in Great Britain and Ireland, according to the domicil, and, therefore, it is competent to follow the former law, and pay inventory duty on the estate situated in Scotland, and probate or administration duty in respect of the estate in England and Ireland.

By § 3 and 8 of 21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, inventories and relative testamentary writings may be given up and recorded in, and confirmations granted by the commissary court of the county wherein the deceased died domiciled; and in the case of persons dying furth of Scotland, or without any fixed or known domicile, having personal property in Scotland, the commissary court of Edinburgh. Section 11 provides, that "oaths and affirmations on inventories on personal estates, given up to be recorded in any commissary court, may be taken either before the commissary or his depute, or the commissary clerk or his depute, or before any commissioner appointed by the commissary, or before any magistrate or justice of the peace within the United Kingdom or the Colonies, or any British consul." And § 12 and 13 provide for the confirmation, in which shall be included personal estate in England and Ireland, being produced in the principal probate court in England, and the court of probate in Dublin, and a copy thereof deposited with the registrar, together with a copy of the interlocutor of the commissary, finding that the deceased died domiciled in Scotland, and for the confirmation being returned sealed; and for the confirmation thereafter having the same force and effect in England and Ireland as if probate or letters of administration had been granted by the above courts.

The inventory duty and probate and administration duty are paid on the whole personal property, without deduction of debts; but the Act 5 & 6 Vict. c. 79 § 23, provides for a return being given on proof of the constitution and payment of the debts. This return must be claimed within three years; but the time will be prolonged on application to the board of Inland Revenue. If there be any ommission in the inventory inferring payment of further duty, an additional inventory of such is required to be exhibited, by 48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38; and § 40 provides that the same shall also specify the amount or value of the estate and effects of the same person comprised in the former inventory. By 16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8, such additional inventory shall be chargeable only with such amount of stamp duty as, together with the stamp duty charged upon the former duly stamped inventory of the estate and effects of the same deceased person, shall make up the full amount of stamp duty, in respect of the total amount of all the estate and effects of the deceased specified in the said additional and any such former inventory. If the estate shall be over-estimated, or something improperly included in the inventory, an inventory on a stamp corresponding to the value must be exhibited, and the original inventory will be allowed on affidavit as a spoiled stamp, within six months of the recording of the second inventory.

LEGACY-DUTY.

On Legacies, Residues, &c.

	Duty per ct.
To children or their descendants, or lineal ancestors, . . .	£1	0
Brother or sister, or descendant,	3	0
Uncle or aunt, or their descendants,	5	0
Grand uncle or aunt, or their descendants, ...	6	0
All other relations or strangers,	10	0

The husband or wife of the deceased is not chargeable with duty. If the legatee's husband or wife is of nearer consanguinity than the legatee, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51, § 11.)

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the personal or moveable estate, or out of or charged upon the real or heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any moneys to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's real or heritable estate, or any part thereof: Also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout) of the personal or moveable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of any testamentary disposition, or upon a partial or total intestacy: And also for the clear residue of the moneys to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of any real or heritable estate, directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of by any will or testamentary instrument.

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May 1853, are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act, 16 and 17 Vict. c. 51; and Annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the Tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act 36 Geo. III. c. 52.

Duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty, though each or either may be separately under that amount.

N.B.—Printed forms and regulations regarding all the succession duties will be obtained gratis, on application at the Inland Revenue Office, Edinburgh; and at the offices of the distributors of stamps in the country.

Succession Duty.—The duty commences on the death of persons dying after the 19th May 1853, and seems to be imposed on all property, both heritable and moveable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy—the duty imposed by the Legacy Duty Acts. The duty on heritable property is charged on the annual value, after allowance of the necessary outgoings (§ 22), as an annuity for the life of the successor (§ 21), which is to be valued by tables annexed to the act.

Personal Property is liable to duty according to the value of the succession; and money charged on heritage—heritable securities—is chargeable as personality (§ 1.)

Rates of Succession Duty.

Lineal issue or lineal ancestor of the predecessor,—£1 per cent.

Brothers and sisters of the predecessor and their descendants,—£3 per cent.

Brothers and sisters of the father or mother of the predecessor and their descendants, —£5 per cent.

Brothers and sisters of the grandfather or grandmother of the predecessor and their descendants,—£6 per cent.

Any other person,—£10 per cent.

The husband or wife of the predecessor is not chargeable with duty (§ 18), and if the successor's husband or wife shall be of nearer consanguinity than the successor, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship (§ 11.)

The following are also exemptions from the succession duty:—

1. Successions from the same predecessor, passing on any death, not amounting in principal value to £100 (§ 18). 2. Any succession of less value than £20 in the whole (ib.) 3. Legacies and personal property charged with legacy duty, in respect of the same acquisition (ib.)

Note.—The collection of the succession duty forms a branch of the business of the Legacy Duty Department of the Inland Revenue. Forms of the accounts may be obtained at the Legacy Duty Office, Edinburgh, and at the offices of the distributors of stamps in the country.

DISCOUNT ON THE PURCHASE OF STAMPS.

Parties who may purchase stamps (except receipt stamps, labels for medicines, newspapers, and postage stamps) at London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, under the value of £10 each, but to the value of £30 or upwards in the whole, are allowed discount at the rate of 30s. per cent.—12 and 13 Vict. c. 80: and any person who purchases at the stamp office of London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, stamps for receipts to the amount of £5 or upwards, or of any distributor or sub-distributor not within ten miles from said respective offices, to the amount of £1 or upwards, shall receive an allowance at the rate of £7, 10s. per cent.—no allowance for a fraction of a pound.—13 and 14 Vict. c. 97, § 18.

REGULATIONS AS TO EXCHANGING SPOILED STAMPS.

The Solicitor's Office, No. 5 in the Inland Revenue Office, is open for the allowance of spoiled stamps every Tuesday and Thursday, from 12 noon to 2 P.M. The distributors of stamps at the following places also receive spoiled stamps for allowance: Aberdeen, Ayr, Banff, Cupar-Fife, Dumfries, Dundee, Elgin, Glasgow, Greenock, Inverness, Perth and Wick.

A supply of forms of affidavits is kept by the solicitor and the above distributors, and claimants may attend at the Solicitor's Office, and have the affidavits filled up and taken; or they may get copies of the forms, and take the oath before a Justice of the Peace, and afterwards lodge the affidavits and the stamps with any of the above officers. If the claim be admitted, a ticket is issued, stating that application is to be made for the new stamps after Thursday se'ennight, and within six weeks from the date of the ticket. If not made within that time the claim will be forfeited.

The stamps, if belonging to parties resident in Edinburgh, or within ten miles thereof, must be presented for allowance within six months after being signed in the case of executed instruments, and six months after being spoiled in the case of unexecuted instruments. If beyond that distance, six months in the former, and twelve months in the latter case.

Bill or notes delivered to payees, or negotiated or issued in any way, and bills accepted or tendered for acceptance, cannot be exchanged unless a new bill be produced, in all respects the same, excepting the correction of the error.

As to the exchange of sea policies of insurance, see 54 Geo. III. cap. 133.

Unsigned instruments are allowed if inadvertently spoiled. Signed, if void in law from the beginning; from error or mistake, unfit for the purpose originally intended; from death or refusal to sign, of any person whose signature is necessary from the want of the signature of some material and necessary party; from refusal to act under, or from non-acceptance—they shall be unfit for or fail of the purpose intended; or if the transaction be carried through by another instrument duly stamped.—See 53 Geo. III. cap. 108. In the case of transfers of stock signed by the seller alone, and other instruments if by one party, new deeds require to be produced to the proper officer of stamps, who, as to transfers, is instructed to certify in what particulars they differ from those spoiled.

Stamps of a different description may be obtained for any stamp spoiled if it be of the value of £6 or upwards. Application for this purpose to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue should be lodged with the affidavit. The commissioners, by 3d and 4th Will. IV. cap. 97, § 19, may, if in their discretion they think fit, refund, in money, the amount of spoiled stamps. They are also authorised to repay the amount of stamps for which the possessor has no immediate use, if applied for within three months after being purchased. In both cases is deducted the per centage allowed by law on the purchase of stamps.

STAMPING DEEDS AFTER BEING SIGNED.

Beyond Twelve Months.—The duty or deficiency of duty, shall be due and payable to her Majesty, and also the penalty of £10. The deed will only be stamped on payment of the whole or (as the case may be) the deficiency of the stamp duty remaining payable on it, and over and above such duty, a penalty of £10; and if the whole amount of said duty or deficiency shall exceed £10, then, in addition to said duty and penalty, there shall be paid, by way of additional penalty, interest on the duty or deficiency at the rate of 5 per cent. from the date or first signing of the deed; but such interest shall not exceed the amount of the said duty or deficiency of duty.

Within Twelve Months.—If the deed shall be brought to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue within twelve months after the first signing or executing, in order to be stamped, it may be stamped without payment of the penalty, or on payment only of a portion thereof, provided it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that the deed was not duly stamped previously to being signed, by reason of accident, mistake, inadvertency, or urgent necessity, and without any wilful design to evade or delay the payment of duty.—13 and 14 Vict. c. 97, § 12.

Abroad.—If the deed shall be executed by any party abroad, it may be stamped without any penalty, if brought to be so within two calendar months from the time of being received in the kingdom, upon proof of the facts to the satisfaction of the Commissioners.—13 and 14 Vict. c. 97, § 13.

N.B.—Instruments are received at the Solicitor's Office, Inland Revenue, Waterloo Place, Edinburgh, to be stamped, if within two months of the first date (the solicitor may, in certain circumstances, receive them within two months of the last date), on payment of the duty: if beyond that date, on payment of the duty and penalty. Parties, on applying, will be furnished with a schedule, and after being filled up, it is to be presented, along with the instrument, at the Solicitor's Office, No. 5, Inland Revenue, between 10 and 12 o'clock, on Mondays and Wednesdays only. The amount of duty wished to be impressed on the instrument is to be inserted by the applicant before being presented at the Solicitor's Office; and afterwards he pays it, and the penalty, if any, to the cashier, No. 3, Lobby. As to stamping Agreements and Charter Parties, see Notes under these heads.

DOUBTS AS TO THE SUFFICIENCY OF STAMPS MAY BE REMOVED.

The opinion of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue as to the duty to which a deed, whether previously stamped or otherwise, is chargeable, may be obtained on the deed being presented at their office (Edinburgh) and a fee of 10s. paid. The duty or insufficient duty which the Commissioners may assess, and the penalty, if any, being paid, they shall stamp the deed with the duty so paid, and thereupon, and also in the case of the deed being previously sufficiently stamped, shall also impress the deed with a particular stamp to be provided for the purpose. The deed shall then be received in evidence notwithstanding any objection to it as insufficiently stamped. The provision does not apply to bonds or mortgages for unlimited amounts, nor instruments after being signed, prohibited from being stamped. The opinion of the Commissioners may be appealed against to the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, on the Stamp duties assessed being paid, and 40s. for costs being deposited. (13 and 14 Vict. c. 97, § 14 and 15). The Commissioners may also adjudge on deeds not liable to any stamp duty; and if any duty is assessed the party may appeal. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 13).

N.B.—Instruments are received for adjudication at the Solicitor's Office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh, on the same conditions as to duty and penalty as instruments to be stamped merely (see above). The mode of proceeding is as follows:—The sum of ten shillings for the adjudication stamp is first to be paid to the Cashier, No. 3, Lobby. Then the schedule (the duty to be impressed of course not being inserted in the schedule), the instrument after execution, and a full copy (written on foolscap paper) of it (omitting the bounding description of lands, &c., and having appended to it a table giving the substance of the clauses and provisions, particularly dates and sums, and a reference to the page of the copy on which each commences), are to be left at the Solicitor's Office, No. 5, on Mondays and Wednesdays, between 10 and 12 o'clock only. Between 10 and 12 o'clock on the Thursday following, a party, who can give explanation, must call on the chief clerk of the Solicitor's Department, No. 6; and he should be prepared to pay the proper duty, and penalty, if any, to the Cashier, No. 3, Lobby.

DUPLICATES OR COUNTERPARTS.

Duplicates or counterparts of instruments requiring to be impressed with the denoting stamp to render them valid, may be lodged at the Solicitor's Office, No 5, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh, between 10 and 12 o'clock on Mondays and Wednesdays only. A transmission of them is made once a-week to the Head Office. The principal instrument, as well as the duplicate must be lodged, and both must appear to be properly stamped, otherwise they will not be transmitted.

Mem.—The revenue takes no risk of loss or injury connected with the custody or carriage of the instruments received and transmitted to be stamped.

HACKNEY CARRIAGES IN EDINBURGH.

FARES BY DISTANCE.

1st, The distance to which any Hackney Carriage may be driven under these Bye-Laws, shall be seven miles from the Cross of Edinburgh.

2d, When a Party not exceeding two grown-up persons, and without any luggage other than a carpet bag or the like, enters a Carriage at a Stance, or when driving along disengaged, they shall be driven half a mile for 6d., and if they return they shall pay the same fare; the driver shall draw up to either side of the pavement when called, and if detained more than five minutes before starting he shall be entitled to sixpence for waiting.

N.B.—This rule shall not apply to Fares from Railway Stations.

FARES BY TIME.

It shall be in the option of the Hirer to employ a Carriage within the Municipal Bounds by time, for bonâ fide SHOPPING, MAKING CALLS, and the like, where the driving is not continuous. The charge in such cases shall be 1s. for the first half-hour, and 6d. for every additional quarter of an hour.

For an AIRING into the Country within seven miles from the Cross of Edinburgh, and returning either by the same or a different road, the rate shall be sixpence for every ten minutes, or 3s. per hour. A drive round the Queen's Drive, shall be considered an Airing. Unless the Hirer wishes a slower pace, the rate of driving when out an Airing shall be at least six miles an hour; and in the event of the driving being at a slower pace than six miles an hour, contrary to the wish of the Hirer, it shall be optional for the Hirer to pay the fare in the proportion of 3s. for every six miles so travelled.

From Twelve at night till Seven Morning, double Fare.

The above Fares are for One-Horse Carriages, and there shall be no additional charge when two horses are used.

Owners or Drivers may agree to drive at lower Fares than those fixed. In that case, should they demand more than the Fare agreed on, they shall be liable as for an overcharge.

LUGGAGE.

For Luggage, exceeding 100 lbs. in weight, there shall be a charge of 6d. extra. But there shall be no charge for Luggage under that weight. The Driver shall assist in loading and unloading in all cases when required.

SECTION OF THE EDINBURGH POLICE ACT RELATIVE TO CHIMNEY-SWEEPERS.

SEC. 243. "And be it enacted, That no person shall be entitled to act as a Chairman, Public Carter, Porter, Chimney-Sweeper, or Carrier of Coals, for hire, within the limits of this Act, until he is licensed to act in either of these capacities by the Magistrates, who shall cause a Register of such persons to be kept, and, if they see cause, exact security for their honesty and good conduct; and such persons, when so licensed, shall be subject to such Regulations as the Magistrates may make as conditions of such licence, or otherwise for their government, and for the regulation of the stands or places such persons shall occupy, with their carts, barrows, utensils, or implements, under such penalties, not exceeding Forty Shillings, as the Magistrates may fix; and any person acting in any of the said capacities without having such licence, or after such licence is recalled or suspended, which the Magistrates are hereby authorised to do at pleasure, shall be subject to a penalty, not exceeding Forty Shillings, for each offence."

"At Edinburgh, the First Day of January,
"One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-nine years.

"Which day the Magistrates of the City of Edinburgh being assembled, did, and do hereby, in virtue of the 243d section of the Edinburgh Police Act, 1848, enact and ordain the following Bye-laws for regulating the Chimney-Sweepers of Edinburgh, acting as such within the limits of the said Act.

"W. JOHNSTON, Lord Provost.
"JOHN MELVILLE, B.
"J. H. STOTT, B.
"AND. TAIT, B.
"WM. TULLIS, B."

BYE-LAWS AND FARES.

1. No person shall be permitted to act as a Chimney-Sweeper within the limits of the said Act, unless such person shall have been licensed by the Magistrates, either by directly holding a Badge from them, or from a Master Chimney-Sweeper licensed by them; and each person receiving a Badge as a Chimney-Sweeper shall accept it on the condition that he shall observe these Regulations, and any others the Magistrates may from time to time enact.

2. Before receiving such licence, he shall (if required) produce a certificate of his good character, and shall also find caution acted in the Burgh Court Books for his good behaviour, honesty, and intromissions, and to observe and obey these Regulations, or any others the Magistrates may think proper to make for regulating Chimney-Sweepers, under the penalty of Forty Shillings, attour performance; and when his cautioner dies, or leaves Edinburgh, the Chimney-Sweeper shall give intimation thereof to the Depute City Clerk, and find another cautioner.

3. Each Master shall receive a Badge for himself, and one, bearing his name, for each of the men in his employment, for whom he shall be responsible, and shall produce when required to answer to any complaint which may be brought against him for a contravention of these Regulations; and failing his producing the man, the complaint shall proceed against the Master. Any Chimney-Sweeper holding a Badge from a Master after leaving or being dismissed from his service, and refusing or delaying to deliver the same when required, shall be liable in a penalty of Forty Shillings.

4. When a chimney takes fire, only the two Chimney-Sweepers with Badges first present will be entitled to enter the premises for the purpose of extinguishing the fire, unless others are specially called by the occupiers, or by the Police, to assist; and no Chimney-Sweeper will be entitled to refuse his assistance in extinguishing fires when called for.

5. Chimney-Sweepers failing or refusing to shew their Badge when demanded may be denied admittance to any house, the chimney of which is on fire; and no person shall refuse admittance to the first two licensed Chimney-Sweepers who may present themselves, or to any others who may be required, whether Firemen or Chimney-Sweepers, for the purpose of extinguishing a chimney on fire in the premises.

6. Chimney-Sweepers wilfully injuring or destroying chimney-stalks or cans, or grates, will be liable in the penalty in the foresaid Act, and also in reparation and restitution of the property destroyed.

7. No licensed Chimney-Sweeper shall be entitled to refuse an engagement to sweep a chimney or chimneys when required.

8 Each Chimney-Sweeper shall wear his Badge on the breast of his outer garment, and shall always be provided with ropes, besoms, brushes, ladders, bags, and all other implements necessary for sweeping chimneys and extinguishing fires. He shall be ready on all occasions to serve the inhabitants; and shall always conduct himself in a civil and decorous manner. He shall also be provided with a copy of these Regulations, and shall shew the same and his Badge when and by whomsoever required. No Chimney-Sweeper shall transfer or lend his Badge to another.

9. All fares shall be charged according to the annexed Table; and any person committing any breach thereof, or of these Regulations, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings, besides deprivation or suspension of licence.

10. The City Officers and Constables of Police are authorised and enjoined to see these Regulations enforced, and all complaints arising out of any breach thereof shall proceed, at the instance of the Procurator Fiscal of the City, before the Magistrates.

GENERAL POST-OFFICE, EDINBURGH.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL FOR THE UNITED KINGDOM,
RIGHT HONOURABLE THE EARL OF ELGIN.

I.—RATES OF POSTAGE.

Inland Letters.

The rate of postage on all inland letters is regulated by weight, irrespective of distance; and is as follows:—

If paid in advance.

Letter weighing not more than half-an-ounce	1d.
" " more than half-an-ounce but not exceeding one ounce	2d.
" " more than one ounce but not exceeding two ounces .	4d.
" " more than two ounces but not exceeding three ounces	6d.

and so on; twopence being charged for every additional ounce.

Unpaid Letters.

Except on re-directed letters, the postage, if not paid in advance, is double the foregoing; and if the payment in advance be insufficient, double the deficiency must be charged. An inland letter, for example, weighing more than half an ounce, and not exceeding one ounce, if bearing a penny stamp only, must, on delivery, be charged twopence. The unpaid additional postage on re-directed letters, however, is not doubled, being the same as if such postage were prepaid. Unless three quarters, at least, of the postage of a letter weighing more than 4 oz. be prepaid, the letter is not forwarded.

Colonial and Foreign Letters.

The rates of postage on letters to foreign countries and the colonies are entered in the Table of Foreign and Colonial Postage at page 449.

Addresses to the Queen and Petitions to Parliament.

Petitions and Addresses to Her Majesty, forwarded direct, are exempt from postage; and such petitions and addresses, as also petitions to either House of Parliament, if sent to a member of either House, are likewise exempt, provided they do not weigh more than two pounds, and are without covers, or in covers open at the sides. No letter or other enclosure, however, must be inserted; and if one be found, such enclosure, unless it bear the proper number of postage stamps, is charged as an unpaid letter.

Newspapers and other periodical Publications bearing the Newspaper Stamp.

All periodical publications, including newspapers published in the United Kingdom, at intervals not exceeding thirty-one days, and which bear an impressed stamp or stamps denoting the stamp duty (of the kind formerly confined chiefly to newspapers), may be transmitted and re-transmitted through the post within the United Kingdom free from postage under the following regulations, viz.:—

1. They are subject to the same restrictions with regard to the number of sheets and superficial extent as were formerly applicable only to newspapers properly so called. These restrictions are shewn in the following Table:—

Amount of Stamps impressed on the Publication.	Maximum Number of Sheets.	Maximum Superficial Extent of Letterpress on One Side.
One Penny	Two	2295 inches.
Three Halfpence . . .	Three	3443 „
Twopence	Four	4591 „

2. No publication, or portion thereof, can pass through the post, unless the impressed stamp which it bears be at least a stamp of the value of one penny.
3. The title and date of the publication must be printed at the top of every page.
4. The publication must be folded in such a manner, that the whole of the stamp or stamps, denoting the full duty, shall be exposed to view, and be distinctly visible on the outside, except that where there are more than two publications in the same cover, it will be considered sufficient if the stamps are so arranged that they can readily be examined.
5. It must not be printed on pasteboard or cardboard, or on two or more thicknesses of paper pasted together; nor must any pasteboard, cardboard, or such pasted paper be sent with it as a back or cover thereto, or otherwise.
6. It must be posted within fifteen days from the date of publication.
7. It must either have no cover, or a cover open at the ends.
8. It must contain no enclosure.
9. It must have no writing or other mark thereon, but the name and address of the person to whom it is sent, nor anything on the cover but such name and address, the printed title of the publication, and the printed name and address of the publisher or vendor who sends it. Thus, if a newspaper, after having the address of one person written on it, be sent to another person, the first address must be cut off, otherwise the paper will be charged as an unpaid letter.
10. If the publication be addressed to any person within the free delivery of the place where it is posted, it becomes liable to a postage of one penny, which must be prepaid by affixing a postage stamp.
11. When a newspaper, &c., is so folded as not to expose the stamp or stamps, a postage of one penny is charged in addition to any other postage to which the publication, if properly folded, would have been liable; and if the newspaper, &c., be addressed to any person within the free delivery of the place where it is posted, and do not bear a penny postage label, it will be charged twopence. In case of any other irregularity, the publication is dealt with in accordance with the regulations of the book post.
12. It is suggested that every publication should have a notice to purchasers conspicuously printed, pointing out the necessity of exposing the stamp or stamps to view whenever the publication is sent through the post.
13. Stamped publications which have been issued more than fifteen days, can be forwarded within the United Kingdom and to most of the colonies under the regulations of the book post.

Newspapers sent abroad must have been registered at the General Post-Office; and instead of requiring to have an impressed stamp, each newspaper, if sent to a British Colony, is liable to a postage of 1d. (which must be prepaid by a postage label or in money), together with an additional postage (as shewn in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage) when the newspaper has to pass through a foreign country. In the same table will be found the postage of newspapers sent to foreign countries.

Parliamentary Proceedings.

Printed proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, sent without covers, or in covers open at the ends, may circulate within the United Kingdom at the following rates of postage:—

Weighing not more than four ounces . . . . . 1d.
„ more than four ounces but not exceeding eight ounces . . 2d.
„ more than eight ounces but not exceeding twelve ounces . 3d.
„ more than twelve ounces but not exceeding sixteen ounces . 4d.

and so on; one penny being charged for every additional four ounces.

Prepayment, when the circulation is within the United Kingdom, is optional; and if it be made in part, the simple difference is only charged. The words PAR. PRO. should be invariably written or printed on the cover.

To the British colonies and possessions in West Indies, Canada, Hong Kong, Ceylon, Malta, and Gibraltar, the rates chargeable on Votes and Proceedings are the same as printed books, and to certain other colonies, according to Inland Book-rate.

Inland Book Post.

At the following charges, and on the subjoined conditions, book packets may be sent by the post to any place within the United Kingdom:—

Weighing not more than four ounces	1d.
„ more than four ounces and not exceeding eight ounces	2d.
„ more than eight ounces and not exceeding sixteen ounces	4d.
„ more than one pound and not exceeding 1½ pounds	6d.

and so on; 2d. being charged for every additional half-pound or any less weight.

1. The postage must be prepaid in full, by means of postage stamps affixed outside the packet or its cover.
2. Every packet must be sent either without a cover, or in a cover open at the ends or sides.
3. A book packet may contain any number of separate books or other publications, prints, or maps, and any quantity of paper, parchment, or vellum (to the exclusion, however, of letters, whether sealed or open). And the books or other publications, prints, maps, &c., may be either printed, written, or plain, or any mixture of the three. Further, all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, publication, &c., or of a portion thereof, will be allowed, whether such binding, &c., be loose or attached; as also rollers, in the case of prints or maps; markers (whether of paper or otherwise), in the case of books; and, in short, whatever is necessary for the safe transmission of the packet, or usually appertains thereto, but no patterns or books of patterns can be admitted.
4. A book packet, whatever may be the postage paid thereon, must not contain any written letter, closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection. Entries, however, merely stating who sends the book, &c., or to whom it is given, are not regarded as a letter, and may therefore be made.
5. No book packet can be received, if it exceeds two feet in length, width, or depth.
6. Any packet which shall not be open at the ends or sides, or shall have any written letter or any communication of the nature of a letter in it, or upon its cover, is charged with the "unpaid" or double letter postage.
7. If a packet be found to contain any letter, whether closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other unauthorised enclosure, the letter or enclosure is taken out and forwarded to the address on the packet, charged with the full postage, as an unpaid letter, together with an additional rate of 1d.; and the remainder of the packet, if duly prepaid with stamps, is then forwarded to its address.
8. If a packet be not sufficiently prepaid with stamps, but nevertheless bear a stamp of the value of 1d., it must be forwarded, charged with the deficient book postage, together with an additional rate of 1d.; but any packet which shall bear no postage stamp is charged with the "unpaid" or double letter postage.
9. In every case in which the postage charged upon a packet under these regulations would be greater than the letter rate, the latter postage is substituted.

Colonial Book Post.

At the following charges, and on the same conditions as the foregoing (except that no packet weighing more than three pounds can be sent to the East Indies or to New South Wales, and that no book packet can be sent direct to any other part of the Cape Colony than Cape Town, Port Elizabeth, and Mossel Bay), book packets can be forwarded to every Colony:—

To India, Ceylon, New South Wales, Victoria, Tasmania (Van Diemen's Land), South Australia, Western Australia, New Zealand, Mauritius, and Hong Kong, the charge is as follows:—

	Via Southampton.	Via Marseilles.
Weighing not more than four ounces	4d.	6d.
„ more than four ounces but not exceeding eight ounces	8d.	1s. 0d.
„ more than eight ounces but not exceeding one pound	1s. 4d.	2s. 0d.
„ more than one pound but not exceeding 1½ pound	2s. 0d.	3s. 0d.

and so on; two rates being charged for every additional half-pound or fraction of a half-pound.

Charges to every other Colony:—

Weighing not more that four ounces	3d.
„ more than four ounces but not exceeding eight ounces	6d.
„ more than eight ounces but not exceeding one pound	1s. 0d.
„ more than one pound but not exceeding 1½ pound	1s. 6d.

and so on; 6d. being charged for every additional half-pound or fraction of a half-pound.

For a Packet of Books or Printed Papers other than British Newspapers	0 3	0 6	1 0	1 6	2 0

And so on, adding Twopence or Sixpence, as the case may be, for each additional half-pound.

The same rates of Postage must be paid in advance upon Newspapers and other Printed Papers addressed to any of the following countries and places, the correspondence for which is forwarded, as a rule, through France, viz.—Baden, Bavaria, Greece, the Papal States, Two Sicilies, Switzerland, Syria, Tripoli, Tunis, Turkey and Egypt, and Wurtemberg, when specially directed to be forwarded "via France." On the class of Printed Papers, the rate paid in this country will cover the whole charge, either to the extreme frontier of France, or to the port of disembarkation, if they are conveyed from France by one of the French Mediterranean Packets.

Upon Newspapers addressed to the Ionian Islands specially directed to be sent via France, and upon Newspapers for Malta, specially directed to be sent "by French Packet via Marseilles," the same rates of Postage must also be paid in advance.

The following is a list of the places in Turkey, Syria, and Egypt, at which France maintains Post-Offices, to all which the above rates apply, viz.:—Alexandria, Jaffa, Beyrout, Tripoli in Syria, Latakia, Alexandretta, Messina, Rhodes, Smyrna, Mitylene, Dardanelles, Gallipoli, and Constantinople.

All Newspapers, to be forwarded at the lower of the two rates mentioned above, must be posted within Fifteen Days from the Date of Publication.

There must be no other writing or marks upon the Newspapers or Printed Papers than the name and address of the person to whom they are sent, nor anything upon the cover but such name and address, the printed title of the papers, and the printed name and address of the publisher or vendor who sends them.

If any of the above regulations be disregarded, or if the whole postage be not paid in advance, the Packets will either be detained, or forwarded charged as unpaid Letters.

Newspapers addressed to the Mediterranean or the East Indies, and intended to be sent in the closed Mails by way of Marseilles, will continue liable to the existing regulations, including the present Rates of Postage.

Sardinia, Tuscany, Spain, Portugal, &c.

Rates of postage (which must be paid in advance) chargeable upon Book Packets, including Newspapers and other printed Papers, addressed to Spain, the Balearic and Canary Islands, Sardinia, Tuscany, Parma, Modena, Venetian Lombardy, and places in the Austrian dominions, when specially addressed via Sardinia:—

and so on, two rates being charged for every additional 8 oz. or part of 8 oz.

To Spain, the Balearic or Canary Islands, bound Books cannot be sent; neither can Prints, Music, Maps, nor Drawings, unless they form part of any publication included in a packet of printed papers.

Printed papers, such as Periodicals, Sheets of Music, Catalogues, Prospectuses, and Notices of various kinds (but no bound Books) may be sent to Portugal, Madeira, Azores, and Cape de Verde Islands by packet or private ship at 1d. per ounce, or if sent via France and Spain, 2d. per ounce.

Precautions against Fraud, &c.

The Head Postmaster who first recives a book-packet is required, whenever he has ground for suspecting an infringment of any of the above conditions, and occasionally, even when there is no ground for suspicion, to open and examine the packet; and every book-packet which is not open at the ends or sides, or which exceeds two feet in length, width, or depth, or which has any letter or any communication of the nature of a letter written or printed in it or upon its cover, or which does not bear postage stamps equal to a single book-rate, is ordered to be sent up, with as little delay as possible, to the Returned Letter Branch of the Circulation Office in London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, as the case may be; but in the case of any other infringement of the regulations, the packet is dealt with by the Postmaster himself.

To prevent obstacles to the regular transmission of letters, any Head Postmaster may, when necessary, delay forwarding a book-packet for a period not exceeding twenty-four hours beyond the ordinary time; and at Packet Offices the delay may, at the option of the Postmaster, be either for that period, or until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the book-packet ought otherwise to be forwarded.

II.—REGISTRATION.

By the prepayment of a fee of sixpence (which must be made, not in money, but by affixing stamps) any letter, &c., paying full letter-rate, may be registered to any place within the United Kingdom. Book-packets and newspapers can also be registered to the colonies. To foreign countries letters only can be registered. Every letter to be registered should be presented at the Paid Letter Office, and a receipt obtained for it, and must on no account be dropped into the letter box. If a letter marked "Registered" be put in the letter box, it will be liable to a registration fee of 1s., instead of the ordinary fee of 6d. The registration of a packet makes its transmission more secure, by rendering it practicable to trace it, when inland, from its receipt to its delivery; and when foreign or colonial, if not to its delivery, at least to the port of despatch. The Post-Office does not guarantee the safe delivery of the letter, &c., though the officers are of course responsible to the Postmaster-General, who will call to strict account any one neglecting his duty on this point, and, if his Lordship think proper, will require him to make good any loss that may be sustained thereby.

The latest time for posting registered letters is half-an-hour before the time for posting ordinary letters.

Parliamentary Notices.

Parliamentary notices may be forwarded through the post under the following regulations:—

1. The words "Parliamentary Notice" must be legibly printed on the face of the letter; and in order to secure the speedy return of any notices which may be undelivered, the name and address of the solicitor issuing such Parliamentary Notice should also be legibly printed or written on the face of the letter; though this latter is not imperative.
2. These notices must be posted either at the General Post-Office, St Martin's-le-Grand, in London; the General Post-Office in Dublin; the General Post-Office in Edinburgh; or at the chief office at one or other of the following towns:—

Aberdeen	Exeter	Liverpool
Athlone	Glasgow	Manchester
Belfast	Inverness	Newcastle-upon-Tyne
Birmingham	Leeds	Norwich
Bristol	Lincoln	Shrewsbury.
Cork

3. All notices which, by the standing orders of either House of Parliament, are required to be served on or before the 15th December, must be posted on or before the 12th December, unless the 12th falls on a Sunday, when they must be posted not later than the 11th; but those notices which, by the same orders, may be served later than the 15th, may be posted after the 12th of that month.
4. The postages chargeable on these notices must be prepaid by stamps; the registration fee of sixpence on each notice being paid in the usual manner.

5. The notices must be posted at the Post-Office window, accompanied with duplicate lists of the addresses; the letters being arranged, for the convenience of comparison, in the order of the list. These lists are examined by the officer in attendance at the window; and if each list correspond with the address, he will sign and stamp every sheet of each list. One of the duplicate lists will then be returned to the person who brought the letters, and the other forwarded to the Secretary, General Post-Office, London.

The hours for receiving both Parliamentary Notices and the undermentioned Voting Notices are the same as those for the registry of ordinary letters, unless the Parliamentary Notices be presented at such a time as to interfere with the ordinary duties of the office; in which case the Postmaster may appoint any other time within the next twenty-four hours for receiving the same; providing that, when the notices are to be served on or before the 15th December, such arrangement do not delay the posting beyond the 12th.

Whoever sends Parliamentary Notices should, if possible, arrange on the day before with the Postmaster as to the most convenient time for posting them, and state the probable number.

Voting Notices.

On prepayment of the postage and of a registration fee of twopence, a notice belonging to any one of the classes enumerated in the Act 6 Vict. c. 18 (relating to votes for members of Parliament) can be sent through the post with the securities for their safe delivery enjoined by law, provided it be brought duly directed, open and in duplicate, to a Postmaster of an office where Money-Orders are issued or paid. On receiving the notice, the Postmaster has to compare it with the duplicate; and if the two agree, the latter will be stamped and returned to the bearer.

Poll-books.

When a poll-book is presented by any returning officer to be forwarded by post, the Postmaster is required to give to such officer an acknowledgment thereof in writing, stating therein the time when he received it.

No registration fee is demanded for poll-books, and prepayment of the postage is optional, without regard to weight.

III.—DELIVERY.

Letter Carriers and Rural Messengers are prohibited, under pain of dismissal, from demanding or receiving any payment beyond the postage on letters, newspapers, &c., which they are required to collect or deliver; or from distributing any letters, newspapers, &c., whether before beginning their rounds, whilst on their rounds, or after they may have completed them, except those which have been regularly posted.

Delivery at Window.

Except where the number of daily deliveries is considerable, and where, therefore, the Surveyor considers such a regulation unnecessary, letters are delivered at the window after the arrival of every mail (within office hours) as soon as they can be sorted. In all cases, however, when there is a corresponding delivery by Letter Carriers, the window delivery (whether to the holders of private boxes or to the public generally) does not begin till the Letter Carriers have left the office, nor is it allowed in any way to delay the departure of the Letter Carriers.

In order to prevent the additional trouble which is sometimes caused by letters being directed to a Post-Office, although for persons residing within a free delivery from such office, but who have no private box, a Postmaster is authorised, when such letters arrive by a mail for which there is a delivery from house to house, to refuse to deliver them at the window, and to send them out by the Letter Carriers, except letters addressed to the military in barracks.

Private Boxes and Bags.

Any person can have a private box who is willing to pay the appointed fee. Where this fee goes to the Revenue, it is fixed at one guinea per annum, to be paid in advance, and for a period of not less than a year; and where it goes to the Postmaster, he may demand the same terms, though he may, at his option, take less. The same also, in most cases, are the terms for a private bag, except that in addition there is the cost of the bag itself, and a charge for conveyance, the maximum of the latter being half-a-guinea per annum if by a foot-messenger, and two guineas if by a mounted one. As the service of a private bag, however, may possibly delay the despatch of a general bag, none must be allowed without the permission of the Surveyor.

IV.—POSTAGE STAMPS.

Every Postmaster is required to have on hand a sufficient stock of postage labels and penny stamped envelopes, and to sell them to the public at the following prices:—

Stamped Labels.

Penny Labels, . .	1d. each.	Sixpenny Labels, . .	6d. each.
Twopenny do., . .	2d. each.	Shilling do., . . .	1s. each.
Fourpenny do., . .	4d. each.

Stamped Penny Envelopes.

12 to be sold for . .	1s. 1½d.	4 to be sold for . . .	4½d.
8 „ . .	0s. 9d.	2 „ . . .	2¼d.
6 „ . .	0s. 6¾.	1 „ . . .	1¼d.

Every Rural Messenger is authorised to sell postage stamps (including stamped envelopes) at the same prices at which Postmasters are empowered to sell them; and is required, when he begins his round, to have in his possession ready for sale at least five shillings' worth of penny labels.

Stamps.

Prepayment of inland letters, &c., must be by stamps, except at the Chief Post-Office, London. In the prepayment of books stamps only must be used; but prepayment of letters to the colonies or places abroad, and in the case of letters posted in Malta, Gibraltar, Constantinople, the colonies in the West Indies, under the control of the Postmaster-General, may be made either in stamps or money. Except by soldiers and sailors in Her Majesty's service, British postage stamps are not available in the payment of letters, &c., coming into the country.

V.—MONEY-ORDERS.

Requisition Forms for Money-Orders are sold at the rate of ten forms for one penny, or of five or any smaller number of forms for a halfpenny.

No order is to contain a fractional part of a penny.

With the subjoined exceptions, no Money-Order can be issued unless the applicant furnish, in full, the surname and one Christian name, both of the remitter (the person who sends the order) and the payee (the person to whom the money is to be paid), together with the remitter's address; and if the name of either party be tendered at greater length, it must be received and advised accordingly.

Particulars required for Money-Orders.

1. If the particulars be furnished in writing (whether by filling up the blanks in the printed form or wholly in manuscript), it will not be necessary to give the Christian name in full; it will be sufficient if the first letter be given.
2. If the remitter or payee be a peer or a bishop, his ordinary title is sufficient; and if a firm, the usual designation of such firm will suffice, except a company trading under a title which does not consist of the names of the parties composing it, as the "Carron Company," to which kind of company the above privilege does not extend.
3. When the remitter notifies in writing that the order is to be paid through a bank, it is left to his option to give or withhold the name of the payee. The issuing officer must in such case cross the order in the way that cheques are commonly crossed when they are to be paid through a bank.

When application is made for a Money-Order payable in London, or any other town where there is a plurality of Money-Order Offices, the remitter should say at which of such offices he wishes it to be paid, otherwise the order can be paid at the Chief Office alone. It is not, however, incumbent on a Postmaster to supply such information relative to local or provincial offices.

An order once issued cannot be cancelled; and should repayment or transfer to a different office or alteration of name be required, the remitter must apply to the Metropolitan Office.

Payment of Money-Orders.

When an order is presented for payment (otherwise than through a bank), the Postmaster has first to see that the signature of the payee be as full as the name given in the advice, and be not in any way inconsistent therewith. He has then to call on the applicant to give the name of the remitter, and if the reply be correct, the order will be paid, unless the Postmaster have good reason for believing that the applicant for payment is neither the rightful claimant, nor deputed by him. When an order is paid through a bank, it is sufficient that it be receipted (without regard to any discrepancy between the signature and the name in the advice, or to whether the receipt is given by the payee himself or any other person), and that it be presented (crossed with the name of the receiving bank) by some person known to be in the employment of the bank.

The holder of a Money-Order is always at liberty to direct, by crossing it, that the order be paid through a bank, even though its payment was not originally so restricted; and when the order is thus crossed, the question put on the presentation of an ordinary Money-Order is dispensed with.

Lapsed and Void Orders.

Money-Orders do not require a receipt stamp.

Payment of an order must be obtained before the end of the second calendar month after that in which it was issued (for instance, if issued in January, it must be paid before the end of March), otherwise the order becomes lapsed, and a new order will be necessary, for which a second commission will be charged. Any person presenting a lapsed order will be furnished with a copy of a printed notice headed "Lapsed Money-Orders," containing directions how to proceed. If the order be not paid before the end of the twelfth calendar month after that in which it was issued (for instance, if issued in January, and not paid before the end of next January), all claim to the money will be lost.

No application can be entertained for compensation for alleged injury from the non-payment of a money-order at the expected time; and after once paying a money-order, by whomsoever presented, the office is not liable to any further claim.

Under no circumstances can payment of an order be demanded on the day of issue; and as respects orders granted at minor offices, time must be allowed for the advice to pass through the Metropolitan Office.

In case of the miscarriage or loss of a money-order, a duplicate is granted on a written application (with the necessary particulars) to the Comptroller of the Money-Order Office of the kingdom where the original order was issued; and by a similar application to the same officer, who (except as regards a temporary power to stop payment) can alone act in such cases, authority can be obtained to transfer the payment of an order from one office to another, or to stop payment, or to correct any error in the name of the remitter or payee, or to repay the money to the remitter. Every such application, however, must contain, in postage stamps, a second commission (namely, threepence for an order not exceeding £2, and sixpence for an order above that sum), though one commission will suffice even when, in the same application, more things than one, relating to the same order, are asked for; as both the stoppage of payment and repayment to the remitter. Unless a sufficient reason be given for an exception, the application must be either from the remitter or payee. Whenever, on complaint being made, it is found that the necessity for an application entailing the payment of a fresh commission is attributable to the Post-Office, the stamps transmitted in payment of the commission will be returned; and when it can be ascertained where the blame lies, the officer in fault will be required to pay the additional commission.

A Postmaster is required to give information how to apply for a duplicate order, &c., and must furnish the applicant with the prescribed form of application. Moreover, if payment of an order is refused in consequence of the replies to the questions respecting the remitter not corresponding with the entries in the advice, or of a difference in the name in the receipt, the Postmaster should advise the applicant for payment to communicate with the remitter, and request him to apply to the Comptroller of the Metropolitan Money-Order Office of the kingdom in which the order was issued, enclosing in his application the additional commission (in postage stamps) chargeable for the alterations required.

No Letter Carrier or other servant of the Post-Office is bound to procure a Money-Order for any person, nor to obtain payment for one, but such services are not forbidden.

No Money-Order business must be transacted on the Sunday; but for the convenience of the labouring classes the office must be kept open on the Saturday night till eight o'clock (or as near that hour as the despatch of the mail will allow), except where the Surveyor shall consider such arrangement unnecessary.

VI.—MISCELLANEOUS RULES.

With the following exceptions, no letter, &c., can be forwarded by the post which is more than two feet in length, breadth, or depth. The exceptions are—

1. Packets to or from places abroad.
2. Packets to or from any of the Government Offices or Departments, or Public Officers.
3. Petitions or addresses to the Queen, whether directed to Her Majesty, or forwarded to any member of either House of Parliament.
4. Petitions to either House of Parliament, forwarded to any member of either House.
5. Printed Parliamentary proceedings.

No information can be given respecting letters which pass through a Post-Office except to the persons to whom they are addressed; and in no other way is official information of a private character allowed to be made public.

Letters must not be returned to Writers.

Postmasters are not authorised to return any letter, &c., to the writer or sender, or to any one else, or to delay forwarding it to its destination according to the address, even though a request to such effect be written thereon; as every letter, &c., must be delivered to the person to whom it is directed, and to him alone.

Late Letters.

Late letters, &c., are received till within five minutes of the despatch of the mails, except in those large towns where the Surveyor may deem an interval of ten minutes necessary, and excepting that no office is to be kept open merely for this purpose after ten o'clock at night.

Prepayment of late Letters.

No late letters, &c., must be forwarded by the mail preparing for despatch unless prepaid, and that in stamps, so as to include both the ordinary postage and the late-letter fee.

Re-directed Letters, &c.

With the subjoined exceptions, every re-directed letter, newspaper, or other postal packet, is liable to an additional postage (at the prepaid rate), unless the re-direction be made by an officer of the Post-Office, and be within the district belonging to the same Head Office. Thus, on a paid or unpaid letter, re-directed by an officer of the Post-Office to any other postal district in the United Kingdom, and weighing not more than half-an-ounce, an additional postage is levied of one penny; or if the weight be more than half-an-ounce but does not exceed an ounce, of twopence; and so on. Upon a book thus re-directed to any other postal district in the United Kingdom, and weighing not more than four ounces, an additional postage of one penny is levied; or if the book weigh more than four ounces but not exceeding eight ounces, an additional postage of twopence; and so on. A registered letter, when re-directed, is not subject to more additional charge than an ordinary letter. Letters addressed to commissioned officers in the army, navy, or ordnance, employed on actual service in any of Her Majesty's colonies, or on any foreign station, may be re-directed to such officers when removed upon service (whether at home or abroad), and are delivered to them for the same amount of postage that would have been chargeable had they been delivered at their original address. The same privilege extends to the letters of the soldiers and seamen described in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage, except as regards foreign postage, which must be paid.

Every Postmaster is required to have a notice conspicuously placarded, giving information respecting the hours of attendance, the despatch and delivery of letters, &c.

During the time the office is open on Sunday, the public are allowed to prepay foreign or colonial letters, to purchase postage stamps, and to have letters registered; and all other duties as usual, except the issue and payment of Money-Orders, which on that day are wholly suspended.

At no office is there more than one delivery on the Sunday; and any person is at liberty to prevent even this, so far as relates to himself, as shewn in the following regulations :—

1. Any person can have his letters, &c., retained in the Post-Office on Sunday, by addressing to the Postmaster a written request, duly signed, to that effect.
2. Such request will be held to include newspapers, and all other postal packets, even such as may be marked "immediate," as no distinction can be allowed.
3. No letters, &c., the non-delivery of which by the Letter Carrier on Sunday has been directed, can be obtained from the Post-Office window on that day.
4. Private box-holders have the option of applying for their letters at the office while it is open for delivery on Sunday, or of abstaining from so doing, as they may think proper, but no person can engage a private box for Sunday only.

5. To prevent the inconvenience and confusion which would arise from frequent changes in these instructions, no request can be entertained unless it extend to a period of at least three months, nor withdrawn, even after the lapse of that time, without a week's notice.

No Postmaster is bound to give change, or is authorised to demand change; and when money is paid at the Post-Office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

Except as regards foreign and colonial letters about to be prepaid in money, a Postmaster is not bound to weigh any letters or other packets for the public, though he may do so if his duty be not thereby impeded. Postmasters are instructed not to receive any letter, &c., which there is good reason to believe contains anything likely to injure the contents of the mail bag, or the person of any officer of the Post-Office. The following are examples of the articles referred to:—

A glass bottle, or glass in any form; razors, scissors, needles, knives, forks, or other sharp instruments; leeches, game, fish, meat, fruit, or vegetables; bladders or other vessels containing liquids; gunpowder, lucifer matches, or anything explosive or combustible.

By the 1st Victoria, cap. 36, sec. 2, any person illegally conveying letters incurs a penalty of £5 for every offence, and £100 for every week the practice is continued. The sender also incurs a penalty of £5 for every offence, with full costs of suit.

The following are exceptions from the exclusive privilege of the Post-Office in the conveyance of letters:—

1. Letters sent by a private friend, so as such letters be delivered by such friend to the party to whom they shall be directed:
2. Letters sent by a messenger on purpose, concerning the private affairs of the sender or receiver thereof, commissions or returns thereof, and affidavits and writs, process or proceedings or returns thereof, issuing out of a Court of Justice:
3. Letters sent out of the United Kingdom by a private vessel (not being a packet-boat):
4. Letters of merchants, owners of vessels of merchandise, or the cargo or loading therein sent by such vessels of merchandise, or by any person employed by such owners for the carriage of such letters, according to their respective directions, and delivered to the respective persons to whom they shall be directed, without paying or receiving reward or profit for the same in anywise:
5. Letters concerning goods or merchandise sent by common carriers to be delivered with the goods which such letters concern, without payment for receiving or delivering such letters.

But the following persons are expressly forbidden to carry a letter, or to receive or deliver a letter, even though they shall not receive payment for the same:—

a. Common known carriers, their servants or agents, except a letter concerning goods in their carts or waggons, or on their pack-horses; and owners, drivers, or guards of stage-coaches.

b. Owners, masters, or commanders of ships, vessels, steam-boats, or boats called or being passage or packet-boats, sailing or passing coastwise or otherwise between places within Great Britain or Ireland, or between ports within Her Majesty's dominions or territories out of the United Kingdom, or their servants or agents, except in respect of letters of merchants, owners of ships, or goods on board:

c. Passengers or other persons on board any such ships, vessels, steam-boats, or passage-boats:

d. The sailors or others on board a ship or boat passing on a river or navigable canal within the United Kingdom or other Her Majesty's dominions.

THE ONLY OFFICE WHICH COMBINES, IN ONE SCALE OF CONTRIBUTIONS, THE BENEFIT OF PARTICIPATION IN THE WHOLE PROFITS WITH MODERATE PREMIUMS.

THE PREMIUMS, at early and middle ages, are about a fourth lower than in the other Mutual or Participating Offices. They are about as low as the Non-Participating rates of the Proprietary Companies—which they admit of being, not only with safety, but with ample reversion of Profits to the Policy-holders, being free from the burden of Dividends to Shareholders.

Examples of Annual Premium to Assure £100 at Death.

Age 25	30	35	40	45	50
£1 18 0	£2 1 6	£2 6 10	£2 14 9	£3 5 9	£4 1 7

Thus, a person of 30 may secure £1000 at death, for a yearly payment of £20, 15s., which, if paid to any of the other Mutual Offices, would secure a Policy for £800 only, instead of £1000.

PROFITS.

The principle on which the PROFITS are divided will commend itself as not only safe and equitable, but as the most satisfactory method on which the Profits arising from Moderate Premiums could be allocated. Instead of being frittered away among all Policies indiscriminately—including those which have subsisted only a few years, and on which there may eventually be a heavy loss to the Common Fund—they are reserved for those Members who alone can have made Surplus Payments; in other words, for those whose Premiums, with accumulated Interest, amount to the sums in their Policies.

THE PRACTICAL WORKING of the system has been that, at the two Septennial Divisions which have been reported, additions (vested or prospective) have been made to Policies coming within the Participating Class, varying, according to their value, from 12 or 14 to 70 or 78 per cent. The class of participating contributors now embraces, with few exceptions, all who entered in the earlier years of the Institution, and also many more recent entrants paying a higher rate of premium. In this way, policies originally for £1000, which have shared at the two septennial divisions, have been increased to £1300, £1500, or £1700, and in some instances to £1780.

The ADMINISTRATION has uniformly been conducted with liberality towards the Members (there being in fact no opposing interests), and with readiness to initiate and adopt every available improvement, such as relaxation of restrictions on travel, provision for the indefeasibility of Policies, and facility of settlement of claims.

Reports of the Twenty-second Annual Meeting, and of the recent Division of Surplus, may be had on application at the Head Office, or any of the Agencies.

THE following are the advantages given by this Company:—

Nine-tenths of the whole Profits divided among the Assured, without incurring any liability.

The guarantee of a responsible body of Proprietors, either personally or otherwise assured with the Office, affords the most undoubted security to all classes of Assurers, with all the advantages of Mutual Assurance.

Edinburgh Life Assurance Company—continued.

Under Four successive Declarations of Profits, the accumulated Bonuses on the Company's oldest Policies range from £50 to £173 per cent. of the sum originally Assured, as shewn by the following cases, taken from a fuller table in the Company's Book Prospectus; and in a case of extreme age, a Policy of £300 was increased to £1122, 13s.

BONUS ADDITIONS Paid on some of the Oldest Policies of THE EDINBURGH LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY which have become Claims, varying according to Age, and the endurance of each Policy.

Bonuses may be surrendered for a cash payment, or applied in reduction of the Annual Premium Many Policy-holders have thereby wholly redeemed their Premiums, with a Bonus still attaching to the Policy, and increasing.

To later entrants the results are, in proportion, equally satisfactory; the Bonus declared on all Participating Policies of seven years' endurance at last investigation, 1856, averaging upwards of one and one-half per cent. per annum of the sums assured, and the gradual advancing rate of Bonus, affords the fairest prospect to all present and future Insurers, that these results will be maintained, until they also shall derive equally high benefits, when they become the oldest existing Policies of the Company.

An Intermediate Bonus (in addition to the above) between one Investigation and another affords all the advantages that may be supposed to accrue from Annual Divisions.

Liberal Resolutions connected with the conditions of the Policies of this Office make them, in every respect, a sound negociable document, and in all Insurances for Family Provisions, or otherwise, to protect the interest of Representatives, it may confidently be maintained, that in no other Life Institution can higher benefits be derived by all First-class Lives.

Copies of the Reports by Mr James Brown, accountant, on the principles of the Company's Plan of Division, may be had on application at the Head Office, or Agencies.

Twenty-one days allowed for payment of Premiums, after they become due, and in the event of the party dying, payment within the twenty-one days, by the representatives, is held sufficient for preserving the Policy.

Policies in this Office no way affected by the Assured serving in Volunteer Corps.

Prospectus, and Printed Forms of the Proposal and Declaration for effecting an Insurance, may be had, gratis, at the Head Office, or from any of the Company's Agents.

No Entrance Money, nor any charge beyond the payment of the Premium, in effecting a Policy.

Very moderate Rates, without Participation, equivalent on Young Lives to an immediate Bonus of considerable amount.

Claims paid three months after proof.

EXTINCTION AND REDUCTION OF PREMIUMS.

A POLICY was opened with the Company in 1826 for £2000 on a Life then aged 45. The party paid an Annual Premium of £74, 15s., which has now been extinguished; while, in addition, a Bonus of £1518, 1s. 10d. attaches to his Policy, and it will continue to receive further Additions at each Investigation the Party may survive.

A person who, at age 30, Assured in 1835 for £500 (Annual Premium, £12, 12s. 11d.) has obtained an Annual Reduction of £8, 17s., so that his future Annual Payment will be £3, 15s. 11d., instead of £12, 12s. 11d. as formerly; and, if he survive, this Annual Payment will be extinguished by application of future Profits—after which the Policy will continue to receive Periodical Additions.

The Standard Life Assurance Company—continued.

The Directors invite particular attention to the liberal Terms and Conditions of Assurance introduced by this Company into the Practice of Life Assurance.

SELECT ASSURANCES.

The privileges of this class are—Permission to travel and reside in any part of the world, free of extra premium; and the cancellation of all conditions under the Company's Policies, which thus become unchallengeable on any ground whatever, except non-payment of the ordinary premium.

Assurances of five years' standing are admissible to this class.

RENEWAL PREMIUMS AND DAYS OF GRACE.

Under these regulations, Policies of Five Years' standing, with certain exceptions mentioned in the Company's Prospectus, cannot be forfeited unless the ordinary Renewal Premium remains unpaid for 13 months. Thirty days is the regular period allowed for payment, but should the 30 days have been exceeded, the arrears can be paid at any time within 13 months from the date when the Premium fell due, on payment of a fine, without a medical certificate. Should death have taken place within the 30 days or 13 months before the renewal of the risk, the Company hold themselves liable, the arrears, and fines if any, being deducted at settlement. After the expiry of the 13 months the Policy is forfeited, but the surrender value is held at the disposal of the parties interested for five years from the regular date of renewal. The privileges of renewal under Policies of shorter duration than five years are very liberal.

SURRENDER VALUES.

Liberal allowances made for surrender of Assurances under the Profit Scheme, at any time after payment of one Annual Premium.

LOANS.

Advances made on the security of the Company's Policies to the extent of their value, at a moderate rate of interest.

THE SCOTTISH EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY is an institution peculiarly adapted for securing family provisions. It is a purely Mutual Assurance Society. The whole Profits are allocated every THREE YEARS amongst Policies of five years' duration. No part is, as in the case of a Proprietary Company, diverted from those who are assured, and paid away to Shareholders; and the additions which have already been made to Policies, afford the clearest evidence of the prosperity of the Institution, and the great advantages derived by its members.

LIFE ASSURANCE.

AMONG the advantages offered by this Corporation are—

1. The Guarantee of an extensive and highly respectable body of Shareholders.
2. An Equitable Division of the Whole Profits among the Assured in the Participation Scheme.
3. The probability afforded by a successful business of a periodically increasing Bonus. And,
4. Policies Indisputable, except on the ground of fraud.

Thus combining the leading features of a Mutual with the stability of a Proprietary Company.

The Annual Revenue of the Company is now nearly £198,000, and the Invested Funds are upwards of £404,000.

DIVISION OF PROFITS.

The Company having, in the year 1857, completed the fourth quinquennial period of its existence, the Directors, after a careful investigation into the Life Department, resolved to recommend, from the profits of the past five years, a Bonus, present and prospective, to the Policy-holders of the Participating Class, of £1, 7s. 6d. per cent. per annum, on all Policies current at the 31st of January last; and although, from the Report of the Committee of Investigation, it appeared that a considerably higher Bonus might have been declared, the Meeting resolved to adopt the recommendation of the Directors, and to carry forward the surplus for appropriation at the next declaration of Profits, to take place in 1861.

Beg leave to call attention to the advantages offered by this Company:—

THE MANCHESTER FIRE ASSURANCE COMPANY was established in 1824, upon principles of public utility, and consists of a numerous and wealthy Proprietary—possessing a large paid-up Capital, which, with the accumulations of profits, offers to insurers the most ample security.

The cheerfulness and promptitude with which important losses have been paid by this Company are well known and admitted, it being at all times the desire of the Directors to settle them with liberality and despatch.

By a system of the most complete classification, the result of each description of risk is ascertained annually; and the rates charged, being founded on an experience of more than THIRTY years, are as favourable to the Insured as is consistent with the security of the Company.

No charge made for New Policies. Losses by Fire occasioned by Lightning, and damage caused by explosion of Gas, are made good.

Farming Stock and Implements of Husbandry on a Farm, are exempt from the Insurance Tax or Duty, and are Insured without the Average Clause.

Communications addressed to the Agents will receive immediate attention.

ASSURANCES are granted upon the Lives of persons in any station, to the extent of £10,000, upon any Single Life or Lives.

FOUR-FIFTHS of the Profits of this Society will hereafter be allotted at the end of every five years, instead of every seven years as heretofore, amongst such of the Assured, for the whole term of Life, as shall have been so assured for two years or upwards previous to the date of division.

The following Table will shew the total amount of Bonuses to 31st December 1854, added to Policies of £1000 each, which have been in force from the commencement of the Society:—

Age at Entry.	Total Bonus.	Age at Entry.	Total Bonus.
20	£559	40	£762
25	589	45	879
30	629	50	1060
35	685	55	1314

A Division of Profits will be made as at 31st December 1859, the calculations of which are in progress, but not yet completed.

The Assets of this Society exceed £4,500,000. Its annual income exceeds £450,000.

At the Divisions of Profit which have already been made, Reversionary Bonuses exceeding £2,872,682 have been added to the several Policies, and such Bonuses are re-purchased, either by a Cash Payment, or by way of Reduction of Future Premiums.

The Directors have also power to purchase Policies for a sum payable immediately; or, on surrender of a Policy, to grant a new one for a reversionary sum equivalent in value to the purchase-money of the Policy surrendered; the Assured under such new Policy paying no further Premiums, but participating in the periodical Division of Profits.

Loans are granted on the Security of Unencumbered Policies, nearly to the extent of their surrender value. No charge is made for Policy Stamps.

Parties whose lives are Assured are permitted to reside in any part of Europe, the Azores, or Madeira, and, on payment of a small extra Premium to cover the risk of voyages out and home, to visit and reside in British North America, and the United States of America east of the Mississippi and not south of Washington, or at the Cape of Good Hope and adjacent parts south of 30° south latitude.

Law Life Assurance Society of London—continued.

Assurances made by persons on their own lives who shall die by duelling, or by their own hands, or by the hands of justice, will become void so far as respects such persons, but will remain in force so far as any other person or persons shall then have a bona fide interest therein. And if any person Assured upon his own life, and who shall have been so Assured for at least five years, shall die by his own hands and not felo de se, the Directors are at liberty, if they shall think proper, to pay for the benefit of his family any sum not exceeding what the Society would have paid for the purchase of his interest in the Policy, if it had been surrendered to the Society on the day previous to his decease.

The sums due on the Policies will be paid at the expiration of three months after proof of the requisite facts.

Written notices of the assignment of Policies are received and registered.

Prospectuses, Forms of Proposal, &c., may be obtained on application at the Society's Office, Fleet Street, London, or to the Society's Agents in Scotland.

MODERATE RATES OF PREMIUM — These are below the average of other respectable offices.

BONUSES.—Four-fifths of the profits are appropriated to the Policy-holders every three years. LIFE DEPARTMENT.

THE Policies, now in course of being issued by this Company, are free from all unnecessary restrictions, and secure every advantage derivable from the system of Life Assurance.
The Premiums are strictly moderate.

The Participation Scheme was begun in 1840, and the oldest Policies for £1000 in connexion with it becoming Claims after payment of the Premiums falling due in the current financial year, are increased to £1284, 6s. 1d.; those for larger or smaller sums being proportionally augmented. Bonus Additions may be surrendered for their value in cash, or an equivalent reduction of future Premiums, the Assured having their choice in all cases.

It is provided by the Company's Act of Incorporation, that Investigations shall take place at intervals not exceeding Five Years, and intermediate Bonuses are allowed when Participating Policies, in force at one Division of Profits, become Claims before another—an arrangement which secures for such cases advantages similar to those claimed for Annual Investigations.
The business in this department has been greatly extended within the last few years.
Prospectuses, with every information, may be had on application.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

All Losses, so soon as satisfactorily ascertained, are liberally and promptly settled.

Losses arising from explosion of gas are paid by this Company.

Common, Hazardous, and Doubly Hazardous Risks, are undertaken at the usual rates of 1s. 6d., 2s. 6d., and 4s. 6d. per cent. respectively. Special Insurances at increased rates.

THE SCOTTISH UNION INSURANCE COMPANY was instituted in 1824, and is Incorporated by Royal Charter, and Empowered by Act of Parliament. It is composed of a very numerous, wealthy, and influential body of Proprietors, and affords the most unquestionable security to the Public from the magnitude of its Capital—a large proportion of which is invested in Government and real securities.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

For Insuring Property against Loss or Damage by Fire.

PROPERTY of almost every description may be assured against accidents arising from FIRE, by the Payment of a small Annual Premium; and Risks involving more than ordinary hazard are moderately rated.

All Losses, when satisfactorily ascertained, are IMMEDIATELY PAID; and the Directors of this Incorporation confidently refer to the liberality and promptitude which have hitherto marked their settlement of claims.

BONUSES

Have been declared in 1841, 1846, 1851, and 1856. At the last investigation in 1856—

A Reversionary Bonus was allocated upon those Policies entitled to participate, in proportion to the Premiums paid during the five preceding years, varying from about One to upwards of One and a Half per cent. per annum on the sums assured, according to age and duration of the Policy.

The following Examples are taken from the Company's Books:—

No. of Policy.	Issued in	Sum Assured.	Total Additions as at 1st August 1856.	Total Sum Payable.
		£	£ s. d.	£ s. d.
812	1834	4000	1236 8 4	5236 8 4

2164	1840	5000	1147 12 3	6147 12 3

The Reversionary Bonus may be applied, at the option of the Assured, in any of the following ways:—

1. It may be added to the Sum Assured; or,
2. Applied in Reduction of Future Premiums; or,
3. Surrendered for its present value in Cash.

The next Division of Profits will take Place in 1861.

NON-PARTICIPATING POLICIES.

The low Rates charged in the Non-Participating Class are peculiarly well adapted for Loan Transactions; also, where the object is to assure a specific Sum payable at death, at the lowest Rate of Premium compatible with Security.

Copies of Prospectus, and all other information, may be obtained on application at the Head Office of the Company, 47 George Street, Edinburgh, or at any of the Company's Agents.

LIFE ASSURANCE.

THE system of the NORTH BRITISH INSURANCE COMPANY combines the benefit of Mutual Assurance with the safety of a large Protecting Capital, and affords all the facilities and advantages which can prudently be offered by any Life Assurance Office.

ADVANTAGES OFFERED BY THIS COMPANY.

1. Nine-tenths (90 per cent.) of the Profits, or, in other words, the whole of the Profits arising from the Life Business, after setting aside one-tenth for the guarantee, are divided among the Assured entitled to participate.

2. Bonuses may be added to the sum assured, or surrendered for a cash payment, or applied to the reduction of the future Premiums.

3. A Prospective Bonus of one per cent. per annum is allowed on Policies which have subsisted for five years, which may become claims previous to the next Investigation in 1865.

North British Fire and Life Insurance Company—continued.

4. The sum insured may be made payable at any given age, or at death, if it occur previously.
5. An ascending scale of Premiums, whereby Policies may be effected at the lowest possible rates.
6. On Insurances for the Whole Period of Life, half the Premium may remain on credit for the first Five Years, or one-third during the convenience of the party assured.
7. No Extra Charge for residence in British North America, the Cape, Australia (excluding the Diggings), New Zealand, Port Natal, and parts of the United States, and no licence required except for the voyage.
8. On proof of age, and by special application, Policies are declared unchallengeable from and after the expiry of Five Years from their date, and parties, on receiving a licence, may go to any part of the world without incurring the forfeiture of their Policies—thus making the Policies of the Company good marketable securities.
9. Advances made on Policies, to the extent of the security they afford, when the value amounts to £50 and upwards.
10. No Entry Money or other charge. Policy Stamp paid by the office.

NEW AND IMPORTANT ADVANTAGES.

To meet the exigencies of parties, and to render the benefits of Life Assurance more generally available, the Directors have adopted the following new and important principles:—

1. APPLICATION OF PROFITS TO THE PURCHASE OF AN ANNUITY.

By this system a party not only secures the payment of the sum in the event of his death before 65, but at his option he may convert the Policy with its Bonuses into an equivalent Annuity commencing at 65.

2. HALF PREMIUM SYSTEM.

By which a party may secure all the benefits of the Half Credit System without any debt being incurred.

3. DOUBLE INSURANCE SYSTEM.

By which, for a moderate uniform Premium, a Policy may be secured, which will increase each year until, in 20 years, the sum in the Policy is doubled. This system is particularly advantageous to young lives.

For further explanation of these new principles, and for the Rates applicable thereto, see the Company's Prospectus.

ANNUITIES.

1. Immediate Annuities are granted on favourable terms.
2. Deferred Annuities, to commence at any specified age, may be secured, either with or without return of Premium.
3. Survivorship Annuities may be secured with or without return of Premium.

REVERSIONARY INTERESTS.

The Company are ready either to purchase Reversionary Interests and Life Rents, or to make advances on them to the extent of the security they afford.

FIRE INSURANCE.

The Company INSURES against FIRE—Silk, Cotton, Woollen, and Flax Mills, Buildings of all descriptions, Furniture, Stock in Trade, Merchandise, Agricultural Stock, Implements of Husbandry, and effects of every kind, at the lowest rates of premium corresponding to the risk.

Farming Stock is Insured without the Average Clause, and loss and damage by Lightning thereon made good.

No charge is made for Policies when the sum insured amounts to £300, or for Transfers from other Offices.

Insurance for seven years charged for six years only.

Losses settled with promptitude and liberality. A duty of 3s. per cent. per annum on all property Insured from Fire in Great Britain and Ireland is payable to Government, with the exception of Farming Stock and Public Hospitals, which are exempt.

The Company holds itself responsible for damage done by explosion of Gas, such explosion taking place within buildings on or in which this Company has insurance, without extra charge.

Prospectuses, containing Tables of Rates and every other information, may be had at the Head Office in Edinburgh, or at any of the Company's Agencies in the country.

The City of Glasgow Life Assurance and Reversionary Company—continued.

THE distinctive features of this Company's System are, that the Profits of the Company are divided among the Assured ANNUALLY.

That each Policy-holder participates in these Profits at the end of

THE FIRST YEAR HE ENTERS;

and that all who pay their Premiums on the Uniform Annual Scale, may receive the value of their Bonus Additions

AT ONCE IN CASH.

BONUS ASSURANCE AT THE SMALLEST OUTLAY.

By annually applying the cash value of the Bonus Addition in reduction of the Premium for the ensuing year, a large abatement of outlay is secured from the outset; and as the cash value of the Bonus yearly increases in amount as the party advances in age, this abatement increases correspondingly.

ILLUSTRATION.

A Party aged 25, opening a Policy for £500, with Profits, would pay at the outset a Premium of	£10 11 3
The next year, by surrendering the Bonus Addition, the Premium would be reduced to	8 8 4
At Age 35, the Premium would be reduced to . . .	7 19 7
At Age 45, it would be reduced to	7 8 4
At Age 55, it would be reduced to	6 12 6
At Age 65, it would be reduced to	5 15 0

And thereafter it would be still further reduced during the remainder of life.

SEVEN YEARS' HALF-CREDIT ASSURANCE.

In order still farther to reduce the cost of Assurance during the earlier years of a transaction, the Directors have introduced a system of Half-Credit Assurance, whereby the disadvantages incident to Half-Credit business, as ordinarily practised, are wholly obviated.

During the first Seven Years, the Premium charged is little more than half the ordinary Premium at the same age.

At the expiry of Seven Years, the debt which has accumulated is wholly extinguished by a surrender of the Bonus, and by a small addition to the ordinary Premium.

Thereafter, by the peculiar operation of the Company's Bonus System, the Premium is largely reduced from year to year.

The distinctive advantage of this system is, that although a very trifling Premium is required during the earlier years, no permanent debt is accumulated against the Policy, and the full sum assured will be paid on the death of the party, if occurring after expiry of Seven Years.

FOREIGN RESIDENCE AND TRAVEL.

The privileges conferred upon the Assured under these heads are most liberal and comprehensive.

INDISPUTABILITY.

The Policies of the Company become indisputable, on any ground whatever, at the expiry of Five Years from their date, provided satisfactory evidence of age has been produced.

DAYS OF GRACE.

By a condition endorsed upon all Policies issued by the Company, it is provided, that in the event of death occurring during the days of grace, the Company is bound to accept payment of the Premium, if tendered within one month after the expiry of said days of grace.

Policies are issued by the Company free of charge for Stamp Duty, for Entry-Money, or for Medical Fees.

Copies of the Company's Pamphlets, Forms of Proposal, &c., may be had at the Offices, or from any of the Local Agents.

THE prosperity of this Company has been very marked, by the steady increase of the business in all its branches, and by the increased advantages which have been declared at each Division of Profits to the Assured in the Life Department.

A continuation of this prosperity has been evidenced at the close of the financial year (14th May) by considerable additions to the number of Policies Issued, by the Losses being moderate, and by the Guarantee Funds being much increased.

The prospective Bonus declared at last investigation out of the realised Profits, and payable on Policies which lapse by death betwixt the periods of Division, is equivalent to an Annual Bonus.

The Directors are anxious that the Life Policies of the Company should obtain all the advantages accruing to them from a prosperous and economically-managed business, and they have every hope that the benefits to Policy-holders will be consequently augmented.

The Life Funds are kept quite distinct from those of the Fire Department, while they are almost wholly invested in Government or Landed and Heritable Securities.

VOLUNTEER RIFLE AND ARTILLERY CORPS.

As doubts have been expressed as to whether Policies effected with this Company would become void by the Assured becoming Volunteers in the Rifle or Artillery Corps, and, in case of invasion, falling in the service of their country, the Directors hereby intimate that their Policies will not be affected by any such contingency; and any party may, on application at the Head Office, have their Policies endorsed to this effect.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The Company Insures Houses, Manufactories, Rents, Furniture, Goods, and Merchandise, Farming Stock, Shipping in Port and Dock, and while Building or used in Navigable Canals, and almost every other description of Property, from loss or damage by Fire, at Moderate Rates.

SINCE the establishment of this Company in 1836, it has passed through four periods of Investigations, at each of which a large Bonus from the realised funds was declared. A few examples from the Books of the Office may suffice to shew the progress of the business.

OFFICE.

EDINBURGH, 3 NORTH ST DAVID STREET.

THIS Society is established on the most approved principles of Mutual Association; and its rates, terms, and position, are fully explained in pamphlets which may be obtained at the Office of the Society.

MINIMUM PREMIUMS FOR LIFE ASSURANCE.

The following are the LIFE PREMIUMS for Assurances of £100 at Death, Charged by the SCOTTISH AMICABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY on the terms stated below:—

Age 20.	Age 30.	Age 40.	Age 50.	Age 60.
£1 8 6	£1 16 7	£2 9 7	£3 10 9	£5 7 2

These rates have been lately introduced on the principle of applying the Bonus Additions to reduce the Premium on the assumption of a Bonus at the rate of 1½ per cent. If the Addition be more, the Policy will be increased; if less, it will be diminished. The rates of Addition at the Investigations at 31st Dec. 1832, and 31st Dec. 1839, were 1½ per cent. per annum; at 31st Dec. 1846, 2 per cent.; and at 31st Dec. 1853, 1¾ per cent., calculated on the Policies and previous additions.

REDUCED RATES FOR SHORT PERIODS.

Age.	One Year.	Seven years.
60	£3 4 0	£3 15 0
55	1 14 6	2 9 6
50	1 9 0	1 14 0
45	1 8 7	1 9 6
40	1 5 6	1 8 2

The above are extracted from the new Table of Rates for Assurance of £100, if death occur within One or Seven years. Parties desirous of effecting such Insurances will find these Rates lower than those of other Offices.

THE COLONIAL LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY.

HEAD OFFICE—5 GEORGE STREET, EDINBURGH.

Governor.

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE EARL OF ELGIN AND KINCARDINE.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN ASSURANCES.

THE COLONIAL LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY was established at Edinburgh in 1846, and introduced new and important features into Life Assurance practice, by publishing rates calculated for Foreign residence, and by establishing Agencies abroad, thus affording increased facilities to persons whose views or occupations might lead them to travel or reside in other countries. By its means, also, the benefits of Life Assurance were extended to India and to the Colonies of Great Britain generally, on such beneficial terms, and under such liberal conditions, as improved knowledge and the circumstances of the times authorised and required.

The progress of the business has been most successful and satisfactory in every respect, and its extent has proved how greatly such an institution was wanted.

THE RATES OF THE COMPANY for Colonial and Foreign residence will be found moderate; and looking to the facilities and advantages afforded by the Company, they may be considered more advantageous, and virtually less expensive, than those of any other Office doing business abroad.

For the purpose of giving increased facilities, also, in the Company's transactions, the Directors have formed Local Boards of Management, and Branch Offices, in India and the Colonies, where Assurances may be effected, Premiums paid, and Claims settled.

HOME ASSURANCE.

THE DIRECTORS OF THE COLONIAL LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY having directed much attention to the CLASSIFICATION OF RISKS in connexion with LIVES ABROAD, in which they have been most successful, have turned their attention to the CLASSIFICATION OF HOME RISKS, so as to give Professional Men, and settled persons of all classes, whose occupations are not likely to call them beyond the limits of Europe, the advantage and privilege of possessing Policies unfettered by restrictions as to foreign residence, on terms which the absence of such extra risks authorises them to adopt.

The Directors have, in accordance with these views, resolved to grant to Persons resident in this Country, whose occupation, profession, or calling, infers a residence in the United Kingdom, and who declare that they have no intention or prospect of going abroad, POLICIES WITHOUT ANY RESTRICTION AS TO RESIDENCE.

It is not possible to state exactly the Professions which this Class will embrace, and much will depend on the features and particulars of each case; but the Directors may mention a few Professions and Occupations which the new Class will include:—Country Gentlemen, Barristers and Advocates, Solicitors, and other Law Agents, Settled Medical Practitioners, Beneficed Clergymen, Manufacturers, Agriculturists, Retail Shopkeepers, and others of like position; it being a rule, however, that no Policy under this Class shall be issued on the life of any one below the age of 25, unless he shall have settled in life.—The Home Rates of Premium are moderate. For example:—

	Age 25.	Age 35.	Age 45.
With Profits,	£2 1 0	£2 13 10	£3 14 2	per cent.
Without Profits,	1 17 7	2 9 4	3 7 11	,,

DIVISION OF PROFITS.

The First Division of the Company's Profits took place as at 25th May 1854, and the Second at 25th May 1859, when large additions were made to all Policies effected in the Participation Scheme of the Company, as shewn in the following Table, the examples being Policies of £1000:—

The additions to Policies of larger or smaller amount are in the same proportion.

Those who do not wish to add the amount of the Bonus to the sum assured, are permitted to take the value of the addition in a present sum, or to apply its value for five years to the reduction of the Annual Premium.

The PRESENT INCOME of the Company is upwards of One Hundred Thousand Pounds sterling per annum, and the ACCUMULATED FUND Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Pounds sterling.

Every information regarding the Company will be furnished on application to any of the Branch Offices or Agencies.

This Reduction is 2½ per cent. greater than in any former year.

LIFE POLICIES

RENDERED MORE VALUABLE THAN HITHERTO.

The Policies now being issued, do not contain several of the usual Restrictions, and confer important facilities and privileges. The Policies are thus unusually valuable, and form nearly absolute securities for debts, advances of money, family provisions, &c.

DAYS OF GRACE AND NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—There is No Forfeiture, if death occur during the 21 Days of Grace allowed for paying a Premium, and the Premium be unpaid. After payment of Five Years' full Premiums, there is No Forfeiture by non-payment of any future Premium at the proper time, but the Policy remains in force for a year, (even in the event of death), subject to payment of the Premium, and of a small fine per month; and Evidence of Health is not required.

DEATH BY SUICIDE, &c.—After five years, there is No Forfeiture by such death under any circumstances. Previous to five years there is No Forfeiture by such death as regards a third party holding an onerous assignment intimated for a month.

POLICIES INDISPUTABLE, on any ground whatever, after five years, and proof of age.

NO LIMITS OF RESIDENCE AND OCCUPATION.—Under Policies of five years' endurance, the Directors, in the majority of cases, will, on application, and without any extra charge, issue a Certificate removing all restriction on residence and occupation. In all other cases there is No Forfeiture by the Assured transgressing the limits of residence or occupation, if Policy held by a third party ignorant thereof, who shall pay the necessary extra Premium when the circumstance comes to his knowledge.

It is believed that equal advantages cannot be obtained from any other Assurance Office.

Note.—These Conditions are printed on the Policies to which they apply.

OUTLAY FOR LIFE ASSURANCE

MATERIALLY LESSENED.

By means of the "HALF-CREDIT SYSTEM," an Assurance for £500, or upwards, may be effected and kept in force by payment of only One-half of the first six years' Premiums. The unpaid half Premiums remain (without security) in the hands of the Assured, so long as he pleases; and if not paid before death, the amount will be deducted from the sum Assured,—interest thereon being, in the meantime, payable annually in advance.

EDINBURGH EVENING POST.—"The Royal Insurance Company is conducted with great energy, caution, and business ability; it is evident that it is to the pre-eminent and substantial position of the Company, now universally recognised, that the immense augmentation of its revenue is entirely to be attributed. The practical result, and best proof of the Company's success, may be seen in the fact that the bonus on Life Insurance is the largest given by almost any office, being 2 per cent. on the sum insured, or 80 per cent. on premiums paid in the majority of cases."—August 28, 1858.

Scottish Widows' Fund Life Assurance Society—continued.

THE FORTY-SIXTH ANNUAL GENERAL COURT of this SOCIETY was held on the 25th May, when the Report of the Directors exhibited, inter alia, the following results:—

During the year 1859–60, new Policies have been issued and taken up by the parties, assuring capital sums amounting to £538,005, the Premiums payable thereon being £17,949.

The Accumulated Fund at 31st December 1859 was upwards of—Three Millions Five Hundred and Eighteen Thousand Pounds—and

The Annual Revenue at the same date was more than—Four Hundred and Thirty-four Thousand Pounds.

From the Septennial Report by the Auditor and Manager as to the state of the Society's affairs, it appeared that the Surplus Fund at 31st December 1859 was £992,063, 6s. 9d., and after setting aside, in terms of the Articles of Constitution, One-third thereof as a Guarantee Fund, a Bonus of £1, 12s. 6d. per cent per annum for the past seven years was declared upon the original sums assured, and upon previous additions; the amount thus actually added to the greater number of the Policies being larger than at any former Declaration.

The following Table will shew the amount to which Policies of £1000, opened in the under-mentioned years, have been increased by the addition of Bonuses:—

Year of Entry.	Amount of Bonus.	Total Amount now payable under Policy.
1815 to 1819	£1262 1 5	£2262 1 5
1825	795 6 9	1795 6 9

1852	133 4 9	1133 4 9
1859	16 5 0	1016 5 0

N.B.—To those Policies which become claims before another Division of Profits takes place, further additions will be made corresponding to the number of Premiums paid after 1859.

TERMS TO THE TRADE VERY LIBERAL.

READ THIS AND THINK UPON IT.

REASONS WHY THE PROPRIETORS OF THE

OPERATIVE HAT FACTORY can SELL CHEAPER than any other House in Town:—

1st, We are hard-working men, and live by the sweat of our brow.

2d, We have Commodious Premises at a very Low Rent.

3d, We buy our Material with Ready Money, and Sell for the same.

4th, We make as Good Hats as possibly can be made.

5th, We have been in the employment of the First Manufacturers in the Three Kingdoms, and for the last few years have wrought for Mr M'Caskie of Edinburgh, in all of which we held a first-class position as workmen.

6th, We do not pretend to sell Hats superior to every one else; but this we honestly, firmly, and fearlessly assert, that we can sell Cheaper than any other shop can do. The reason of this is plain to every unprejudiced mind; owing to our small expense—buying our materials with cash, and getting them up ourselves—we are in a position to feel interested in the honour of our name as Manufacturers, and are enabled to sell them Cheaper than Gentlemen who must pay very high rents (from £60 to £300)—who must pay proportionate taxes and other incidental expenses—who must live in a style becoming their position and standing in high society—who must, to do all this, impose enormous profits upon their Customers. We can, will, and shall avoid all this by adhering to these rules,—hard work, small profits, and a quick return; thus commanding the attention of the Public to the honest and persevering efforts of Working Men.

HUMAN ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY,

Selected and Arranged under the Superintendence of JOHN GOODSIR, Esq., Professor of Anatomy in the University of Edinburgh. By WILLIAM TURNER, Esq., Demonstrator of Anatomy in the University of Edinburgh.

The names of Professor Goodsir and Mr Turner afford a sufficient guarantee for the accuracy of the delineations and text; and in proof of the want of this kind of information, the Publishers may be allowed to quote the following opinion, addressed to the Board of Trade by sixty-five medical men of the highest standing in England:—

"Our opinion having been requested as to the advantages of making the Elements of Human Physiology, or a general knowledge of the laws of health, a part of the education of youth, we, the undersigned, have no hesitation in giving it strongly in the affirmative. We are satisfied that much of the sickness from which the working-classes at present suffer might be avoided; and we know that the best-directed efforts to benefit them by medical treatment are often greatly impeded, and sometimes entirely frustrated, by their ignorance and their neglect of the conditions upon which health necessarily depends. We are therefore of opinion, that it would greatly tend to prevent sickness and to promote soundness of body and mind, were the Elements of Physiology, in its application to the preservation of health, made a part of general education; and we are convinced that such instruction may be rendered most interesting to the young, and may be communicated to them with the utmost facility and propriety in the ordinary schools, by properly instructed Schoolmasters.

"Sir J. Clark, Bart., M.A., M.D., F.R.S., Physician in Ordinary to the Queen, and to H.R.H. Prince Albert, etc.

J. Copland, M.D., F.R.S., President of the Royal Medical and Chirurgical Society.

W. B. Carpenter, M.D., F.R.S., Examiner in Physiology, etc., University of London, Professor of Forensic Medicine at the University College.

Sir W. Burnet, M.D., K.C.B., and K.C.H., F.R.S., Director-General of Naval Hospitals and Fleets.

G. Burrows, M.D., F.R.S., Physician to St Bartholomew's Hospital, etc.

J. Davy, M.D., F.R.S., Inspector-General of Army Hospitals.

J. Erichson, F.R.C.S., Professor of Surgery, University College, and Surgeon to University College Hospital," etc., etc.

N.B.—The Illustrations of Human Anatomy and Physiology can also be had in the form of an Atlas.

FREDERICK SCHENCK

(Late Senior Partner of Schenck & M'Farlane),

50 GEORGE STREET, EDINBURGH,

SECOND DOOR EAST OF ASSEMBLY ROOMS.

(No connection with any other House.)

All kinds of COMMERCIAL LITHOGRAPHY and ENGRAVING as formerly; Show Cards, Plans, Charts, and every class of Artistic, Mechanical, and Scientific Drawings. Gold and Colour Printing.

A FEW OF THE NOTICES BY THE PRESS.

The Athenæum.—"Two forcible and excellent Lithographs now lie before us. One of Lord Loughborough—a great Masonic authority—is boldly and cleverly drawn. The Series of M.P.s, of whom Colonel Sykes, M.P., is one of the most rugged and sturdy looking, promises well. The stormy ledger lines on the brow, —the deep pits under the eyes,—the almost fierce mouth, are finely touched in, without the usual cosmetic flattery of popular portraits."

London Morning Herald.—"These Portraits are all executed in a bold and masterly manner. The head of A. Murray Dunlop, M.P., is very characteristic, and the resemblance may be relied on, as the drawing has been made from a photograph by J. Watkins of Parliament Street, London."

London Morning Post.—"Mr Schenck has added to his gallery of Lithographic Portraits two which, whether viewed with reference to the celebrity of the personages represented, or the excellent style in which the works are executed, must be regarded as the most important and the most interesting of the whole series. They are portraits of Friedrich von Schiller and of Wolfgang von Goethe, the former being taken chiefly from Dannecker's bust at Weimar; and the latter from Trippel's bust at the same place, executed on Goethe's first visit to Italy. Both heads are types of all that is most noble and manly in physical and intellectual beauty; and the Portraits, alike truthful in feature and expression, are so singularly remarkable for softness and precision, that they resemble Engravings less than the careful manipulations of a skilful and sympathetic pencil.

London Sun.—"These Lithographs show us a series of vivid and life-like Portraits, drawn on a large scale, with vigour and ability. They are forcible likenesses, readily realising the individuality of their subject."

London Art Journal, regarding Sir Wm. D. Stewart's Chapel at Murthly, Perthshire.—"The illustrations in chromo are very fine specimens of this Art; the large plate shewing the Altar and Altar-piece of the 'Vision of the Emperor Constantine,' is one of the richest examples of coloured printing we have ever seen."

FROM THE ROYAL S. SOCIETY OF ARTS.

"Report of Committee.—The Committee feel it incumbent upon them, in the strongest manner, to call the attention of the Society to the great energy with which Mr Schenck has prosecuted Lithography in Scotland, whereby he has secured for this part of the kingdom a large share of the employment which was formerly carried to London or abroad, and has carried out his practical application with such taste and skill, as to have advanced it from a mere branch of trade to take its place among the Fine Arts of the country."

A Medal was bestowed at the same time.

Edinburgh Daily Courant.—"The whole are distinguished by the truth of drawing, clearness of expression, and excellence of finish, that have hitherto characterised Mr Schenck's productions. Indeed, we have seen nothing in Lithography to excel them."

Glasgow Citizen.—"The Portrait of Lord Elgin, for instance, is a faithful likeness, and conveys a vivid conception of the appearance of that vigorous and truly famous man. Less cannot be said of the Portraits of the Lord Advocate, and other Members of Parliament, which grace this really beautiful collection."

Edinburgh News.—"No one need hesitate to purchase what Mr Schenck puts out of his hands. The Work is certain to be as perfect as Art can make it."

Glasgow Herald.—"Mr Schenck is at present producing, in the highest style of his Art, a Series of Portraits, remarkably striking productions, highly finished as works of Art, and of that class of Pictures which we instinctively feel can scarcely be other than good likenesses."

Dundee and Perth Saturday Post.—"Mr Schenck has commenced a Series of Portraits of Representatives and Political Celebrities that ought to command attention and encouragement all over the country. The Portraits are speaking likenesses,—full of life and character, and in every way admirable illustrations of perfection of his Art."
